McGuinness High School

Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

WELCOME TO OUR MOD "MOD" WORLD

If you will come with us into our modern world of modular scheduling, we shall try to explain what we, the Oklahoma pioneers in this updated educational program, are trying to do. The program is so excitingly different we are still trying to keep our feet on the ground. So get your bearings and let's go.

FACULTY JOINS "AVANT GARDE"

At the suggestion of the University of Oklahoma, and with the approval of the State Dept. of Education, McGuinness opted for modular scheduling this year. The traditional rigid time arrangement of one hour classes during a six hour day gave place to a cycle of five days, each divided into seventeen twenty-minute time modules.

A computerized schedule combines class periods into one, two, or three mods, dependent upon the type of subject matter.

Besides encouraging students to use their free time effectively, faculty members are available for consultation, and for giving help to students who wish to pursue independent courses for which they may gain extra credit.

TAKING RECORDS of absentees and tardies is only a portion of Mrs. Granville Colbert's work.

TRANSCRIPTS, registration, Schedule adjustment, etc., keep Mrs. Cordelia Wilson busy.

MR. ODELL BURTON, Custodian, leans on his mop obligingly for the camera.

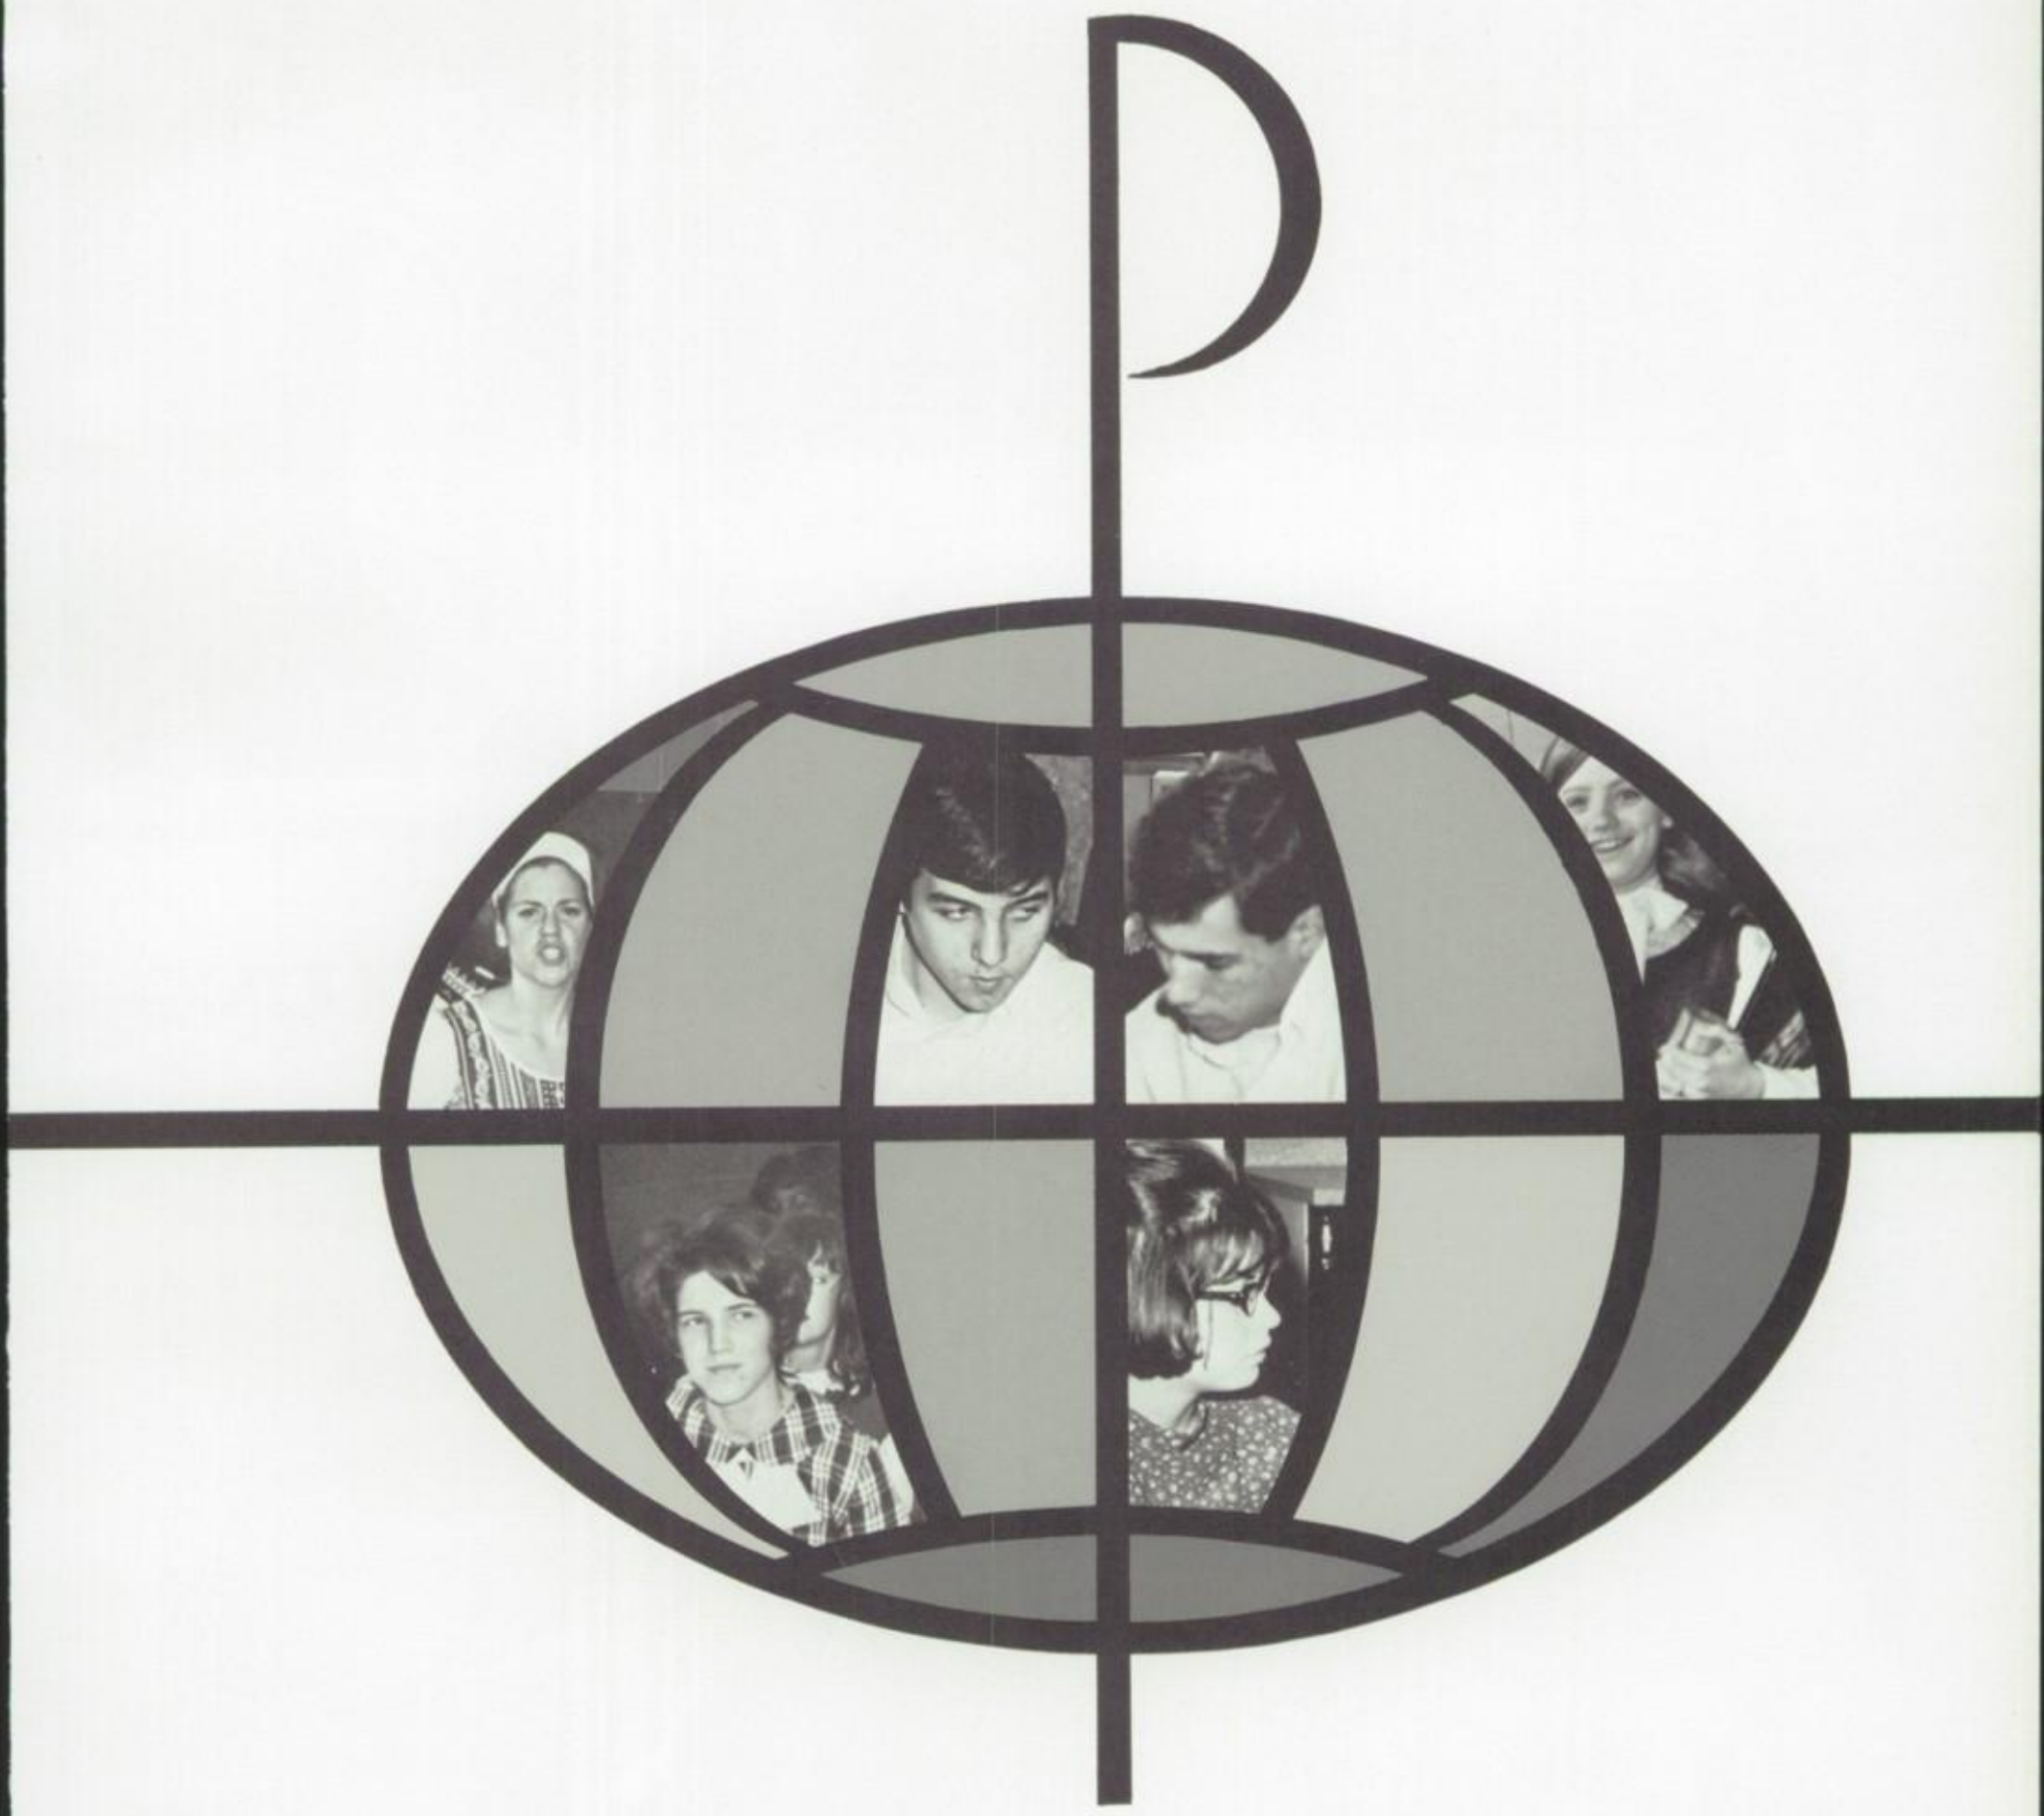
ORDERING maintenance material and keeping the plant running smoothly take a lot of Mr. Fred Zvonek's and Mr. Bob Genzer's time.

MAINTENANCE IS A NEVER ENDING JOB

MRS. JOSEPHINE ZVONEK and Mrs. Adeline Rohrbach prepare the steam table for that long hungry line.

IT'S A NOVELTY to see Mr. Al Hill detached from his mop and cart.

STUDIES



DO GREG LESTER and Dianne Blood really wish they were in the small discussion group with Susan Steele, Karen Patric, John Morgan, and David Walker?

MHS INTRODUCES MODULAR SCHEDULING

TOM WOLF surely knows the answer to the preplexing question Father Monahan has just asked Andi Slick.

INDIVIDUAL RESPONSIBILITY IS A "MUST"

In the McGuinness modular scheduling program there is a five day cycle, named for the first five letters of the Greek alphabet—Alpha, Beta, Gamma, Delta, Epsilon. Each school day has seventeen time periods (modules) of twenty minutes each. Between mods three minutes are allowed for "pass time." Classes are timed by one, two, or three successive modules.

There are three types of class periods—large group lecture, small group meeting, and unassigned study time. Each student is free to select a designated area for study; the only restriction is that he must remain in that area during the entire mod.

This program offers greater opportunity and responsibility for each student with regard to his education, and a better setting for teachers to perform with professional excellence.

Each student must decide his use of time, of resources, and his extent of activities. It's obvious that the use of unassigned time will make or break a student. He doesn't have to be a "brain," but he does have to be responsible for himself and concerned for others.

MRS. GALLAGHER approves the magazine that Tom McAboy has selected for research.

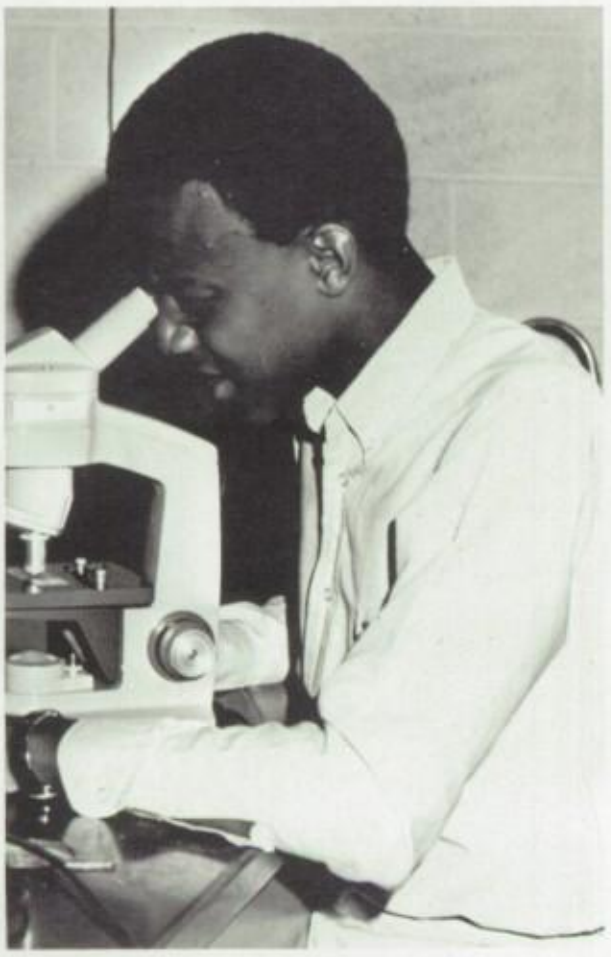
DICK BRADLEY and Tom Zynda are waiting to add their opinion to what is being discussed in this English group

DO RICHARD SLOAN, James Maguire, and Randy Keltner really understand the Matrix Algebra that Mr. Gavula is explaining?

"NOW, HONEY, are you sure you understand Hemingway's style?" Kathy Tillerson looks as if she doesn't.

COLLECTIVELY OR

MARY SINE and Don Coleman listen to Spanish III tapes—in Spanish of course.

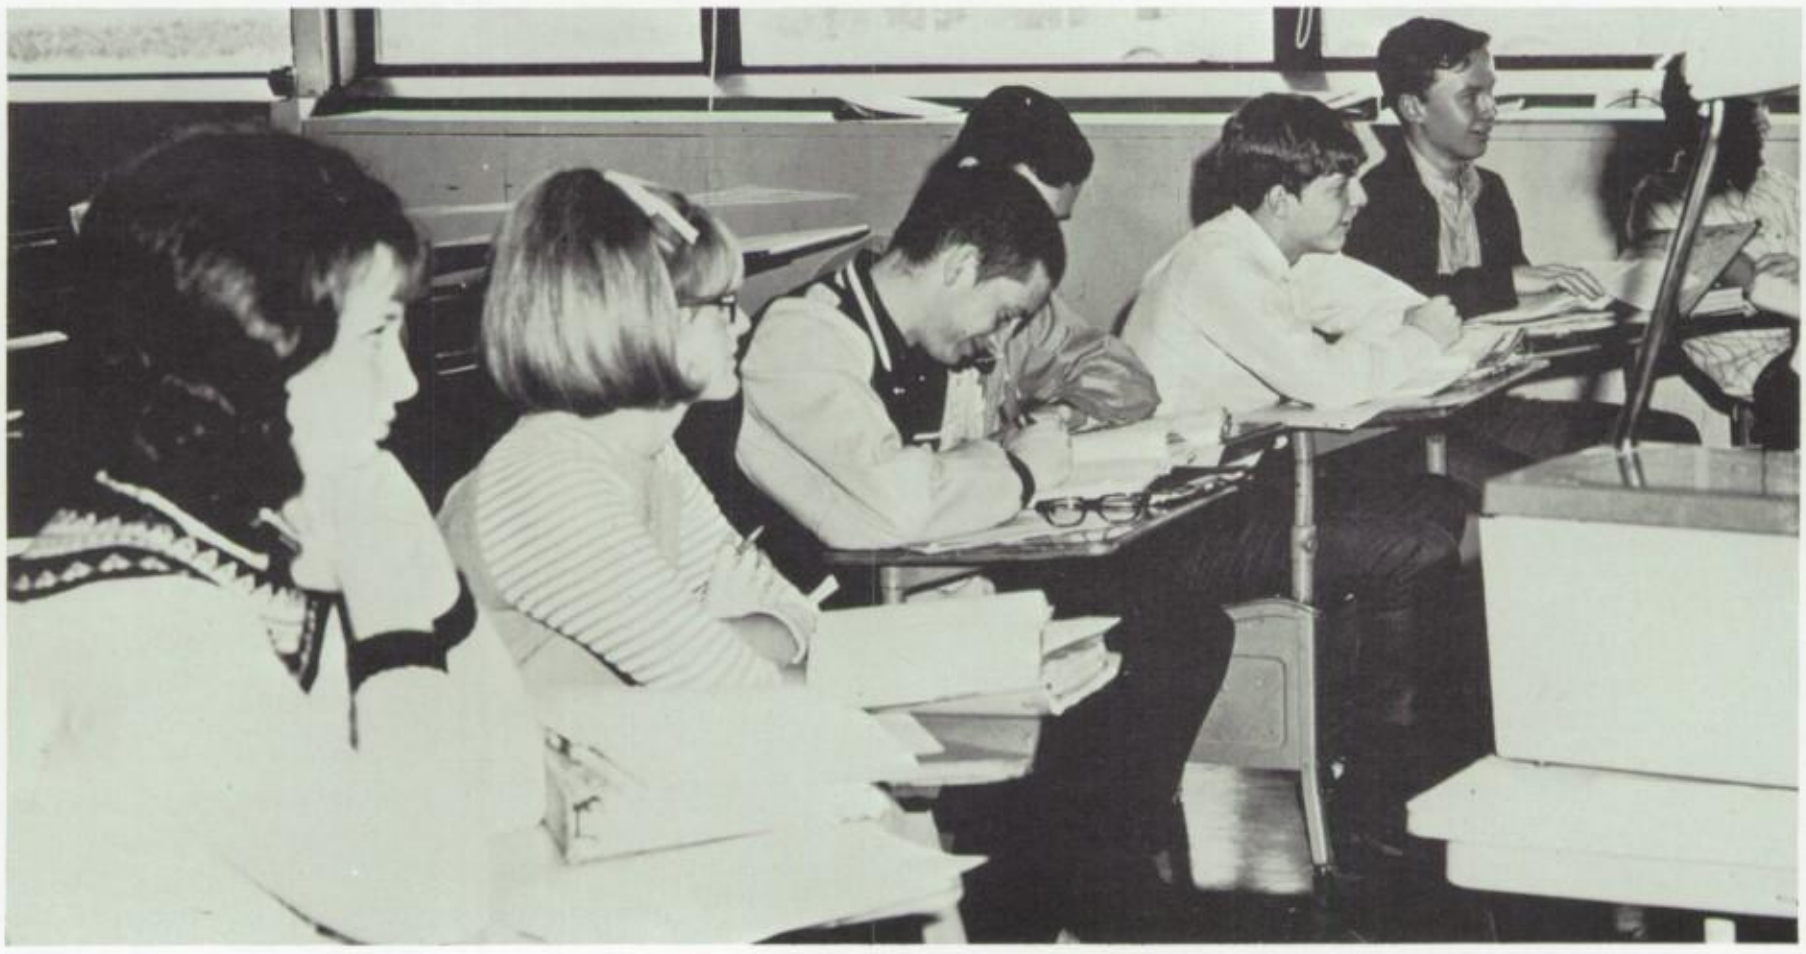


COULD MARCELLUS JONES be holding a conversation with that silkworm under the miscroscope?

IT'S CHEMISTRY lab inventory time again and doesn't Becky Ward look elated?

INDIVIDUALLY THEY SEARCH OUT TRUTH

GEOMETRY STUDENTS, Diane Perkins, Debbie Boulware, Bob Marino, Randy Fudge, and Clayton Anderson listen with mixed emotions to a discussion in a small group meeting.

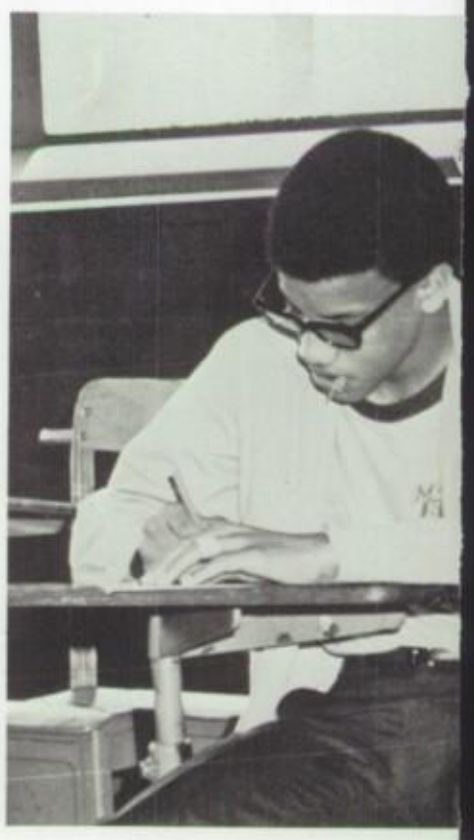


THEY SHARE IDEAS, PROMOTE DISCUSSIONS,

SOPHOMORES Hollis Mongin, Connie Stanbrough, Chuck Novey, and Bill Kizer make good use of their study time.

CHALLENGING English assignments keep Margaret Fiedler, Dianne Nicholl, and Mike Cassidy busy.

TELL US, Kerry Cox, does the lid to that Bic pen really taste that good?



FORM CONVICTIONS, INSTIGATE OPINIONS

IN SISTER PAULINE'S World Literature Class, Mike Derdeyn, Steve Knorr, John Dill, and Mary Lee Douglass dig into their study of Dante's "Inferno."

JOHN MORGAN and Lois Byler prepare an assignment in French I.

FRESHMAN compose a poster for their Religion I Class.

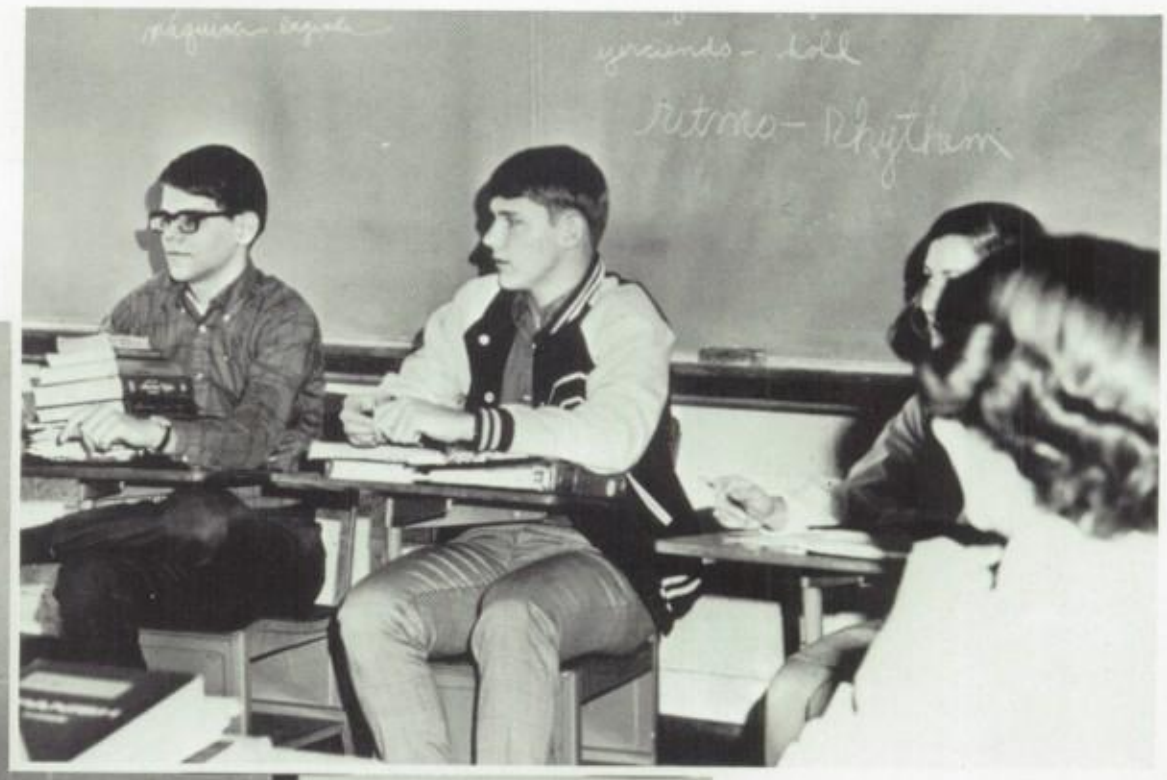
TO ACHIEVE INDIVIDUAL POTENTIAL

SOPHOMORES RESPOND to the informal atmosphere of Mr. Lucas's Oklahoma History Class by opening up.

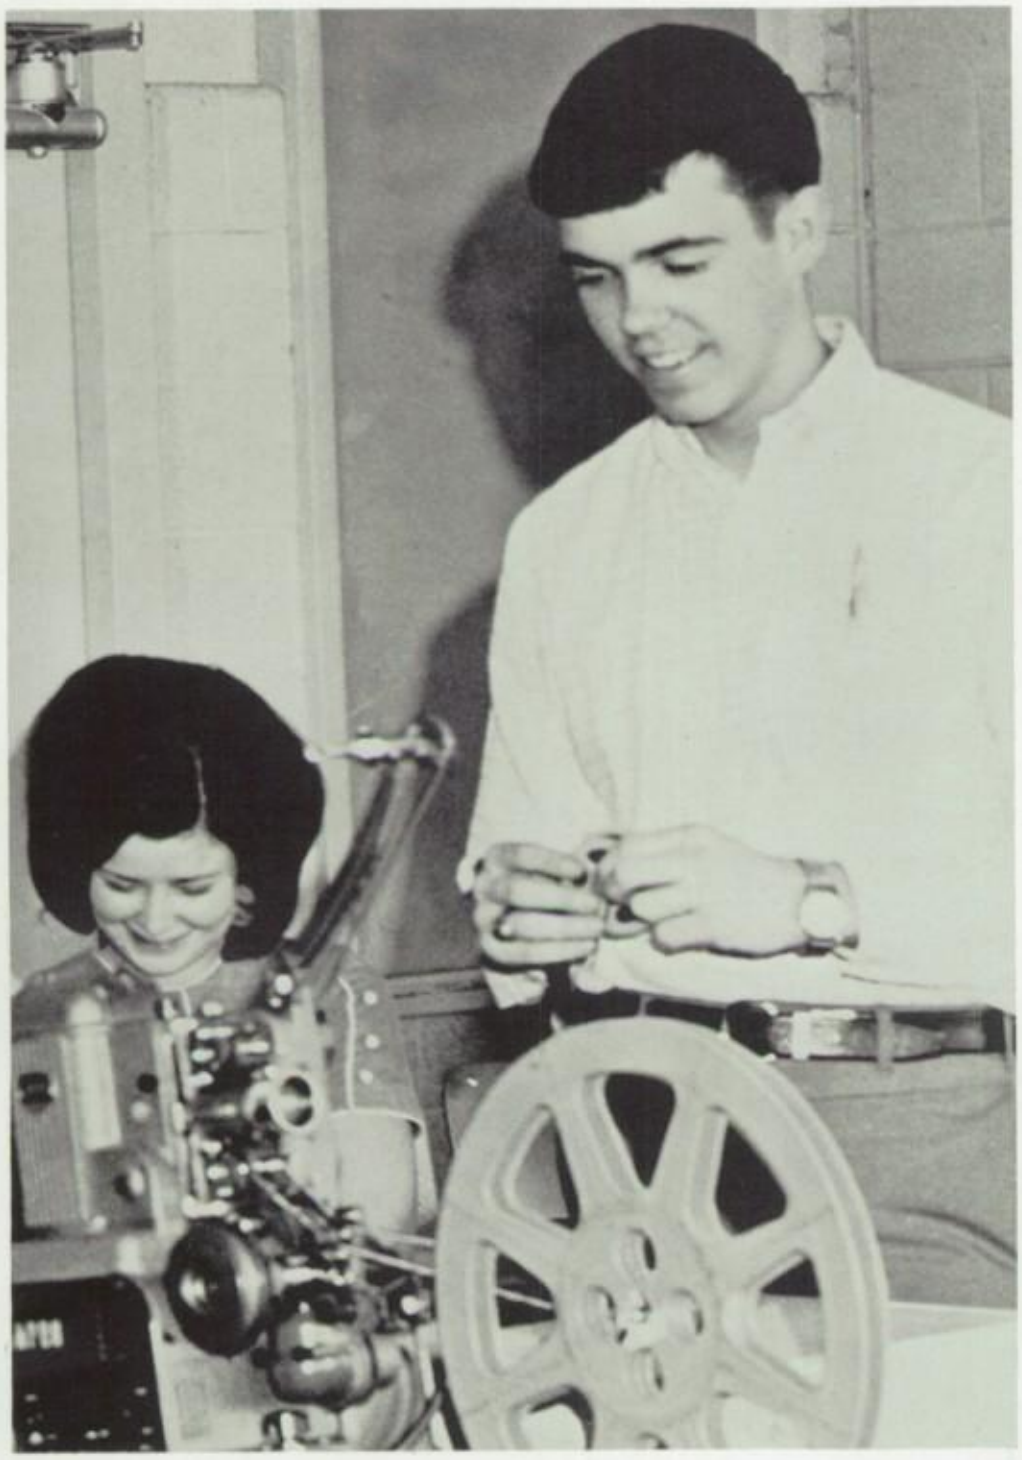
MIKE O'HARA, Pat Derdeyn, Susan Pena, and Sue Tullius quietly listen to "Hermana" in Spanish III Class.



JAN LIPE and Preston Brogdon do plenty of research and study in Mr. Aaron's General Science Class.

SPENCE CARSON is momentarily distracted during the reading of the Student Council minutes by Kathy Wall.

"YOU THINK you've got problems," sighs Peter Kierl. "I'm in a small group with three girls."



AFTER PRODUCING and directing a movie in their American Literature Class, Susi Squires and Barney Semtner preview the finished production.

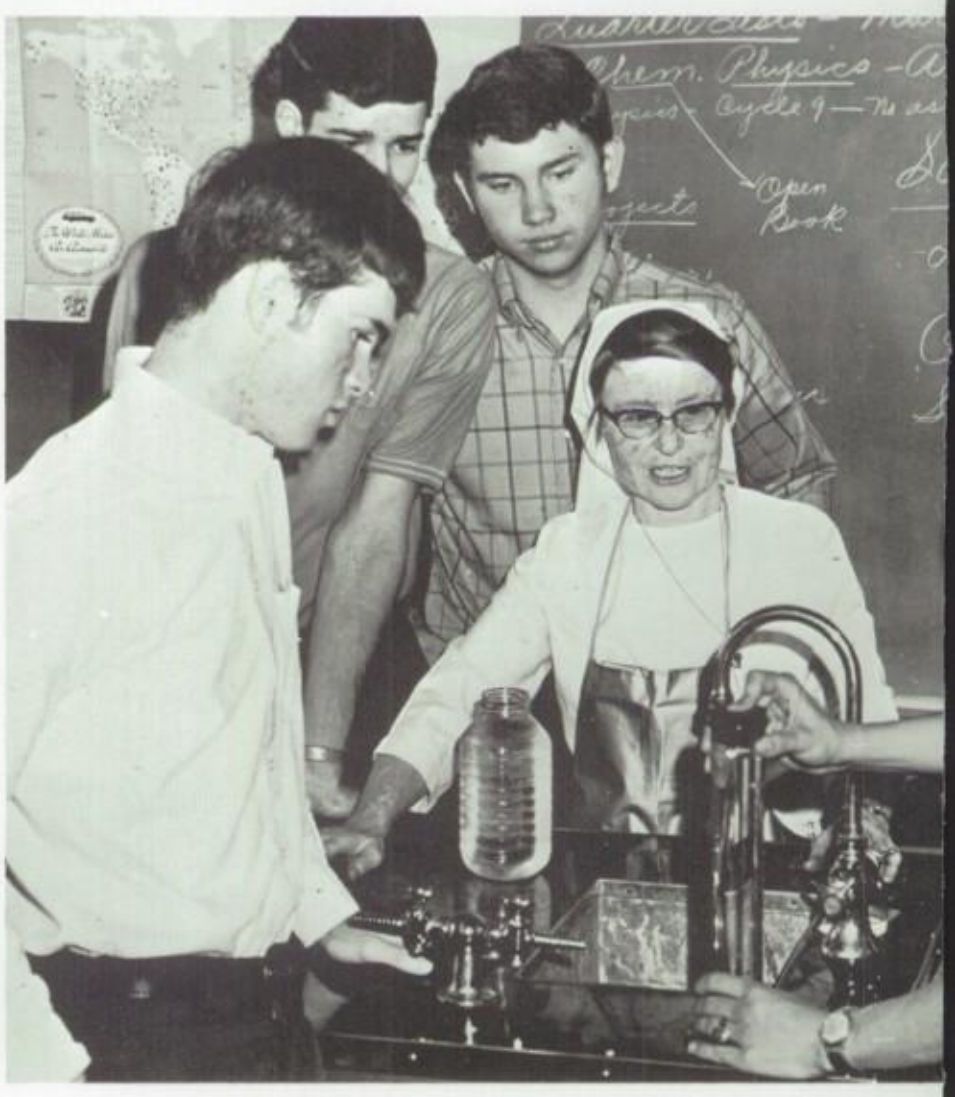
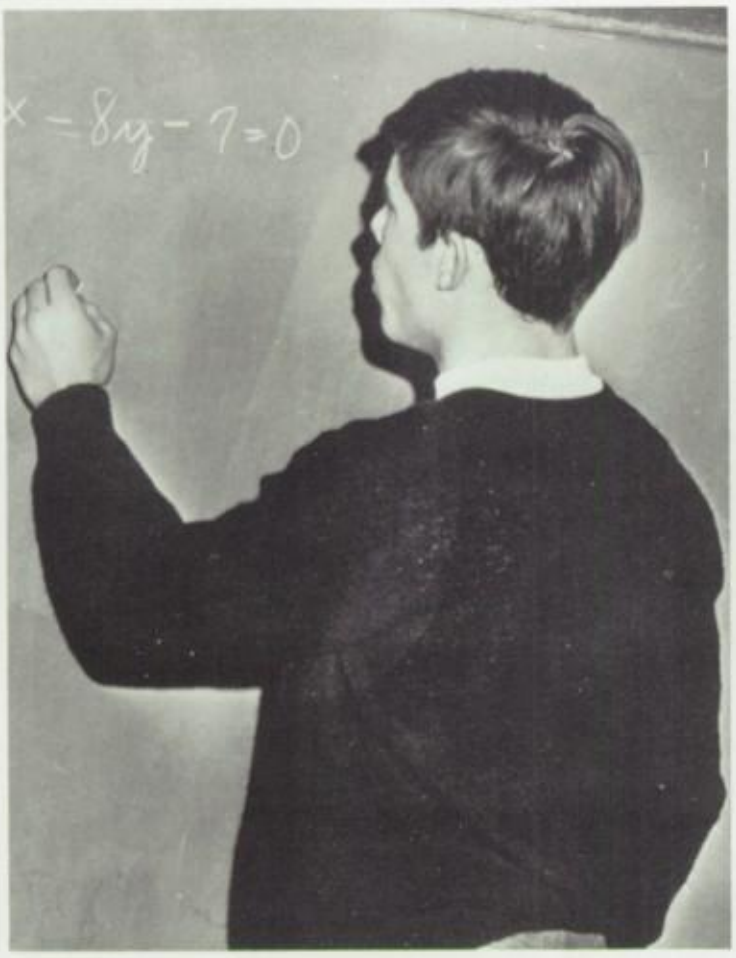
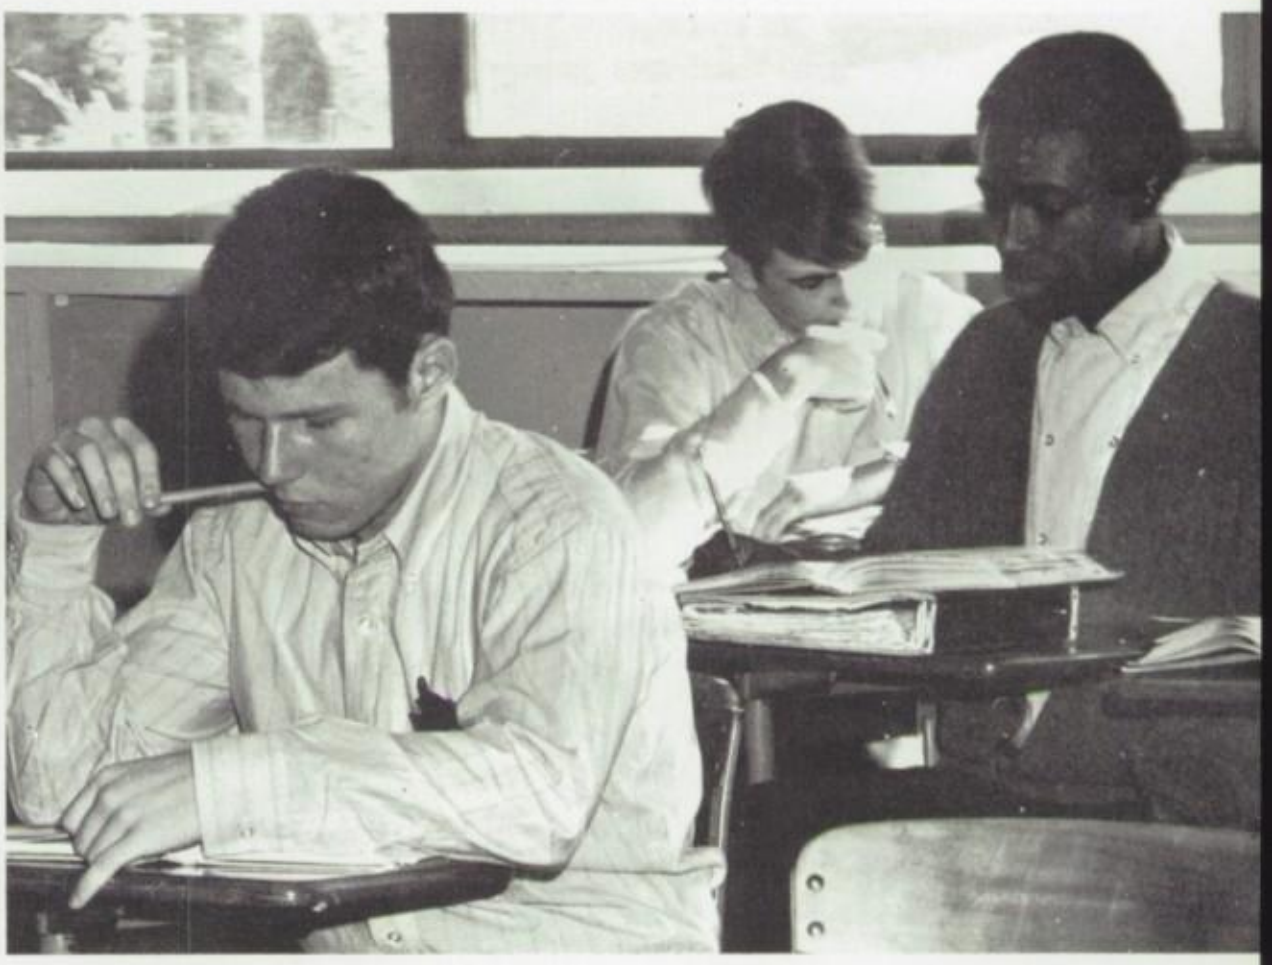
LANGUAGE LAB assistant, Gael Farrell inquires which tape the students on Unassigned time prefer.

SISTER ALBAN explains the effects of water pressure to Dan Gallagher, John Gavula, Mike Derdeyn, Tim Trosper, and John Hernandez in their Physics Class.





"SEEING IS BELIEVING," is Mike Burke's comment in Algebra II.



DAVID McDONALD, Carl Niemerg, and Eric Johnson collectively and individually solve problems in Mr. Durham's Geometry Class.

TRIGONOMETRY, FUNCTIONS, CALCULUS

GEOMETRY PROBLEMS prove too difficult for students to study without consultation.

WELL, what d'ya know! Is Barry Fiegel taking to needlework?

FREEDOM OF CHOICE, RESPONSIBILITY FOR

DURING A SLACK MOD in student store sales Leslie Wylie and Joan Teague catch up on study.

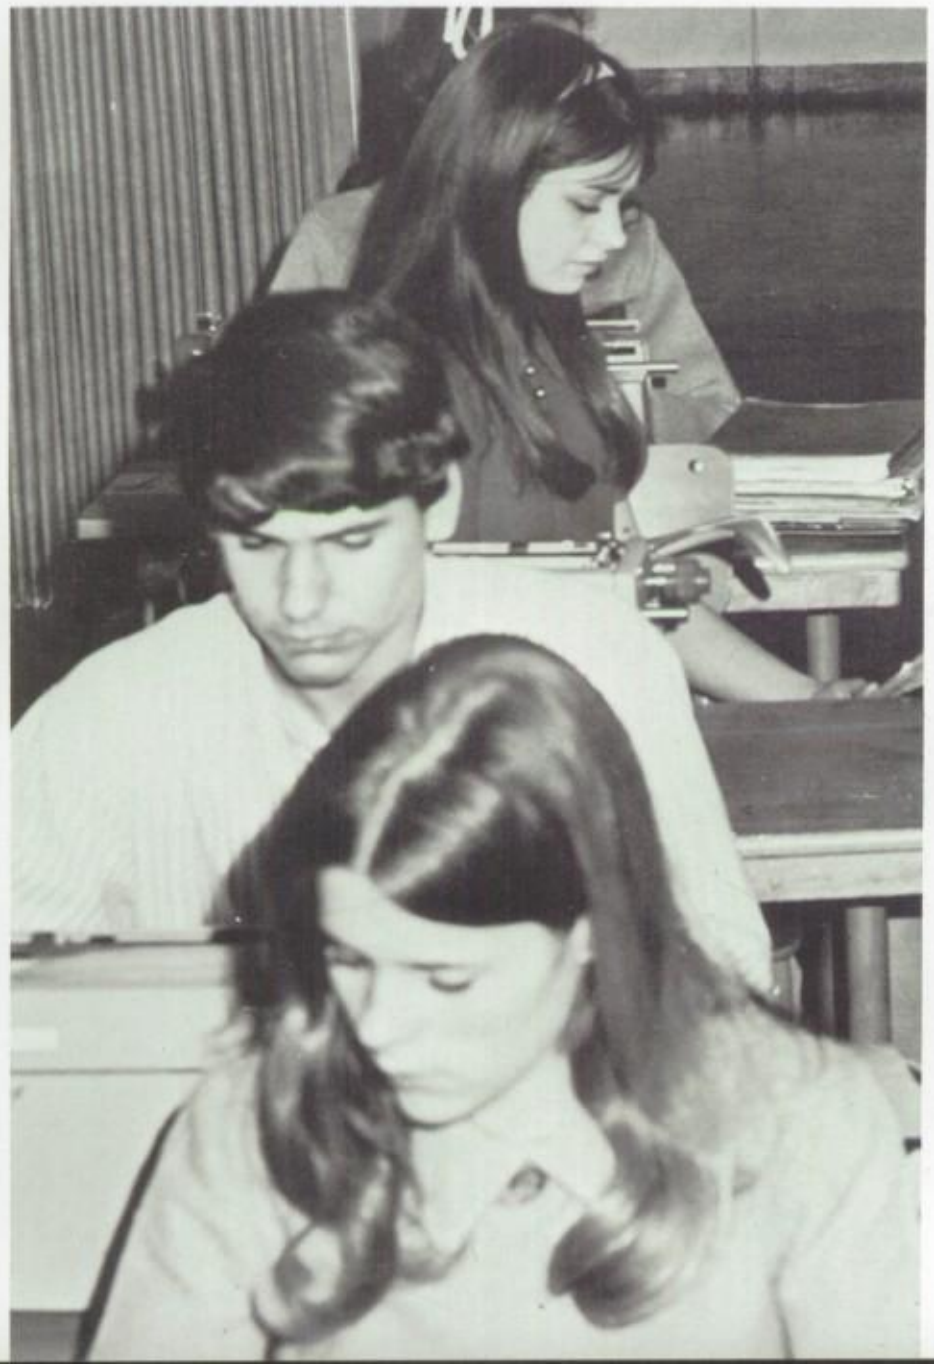
WHILE McGUINNESS ART students dabble in diverse art forms, they also indulge in spreading the latest gossip.

USE OF TIME MAKES FOR MATURITY

MUSIC DIRECTOR, Mr. Jim Capps, instructs the Freshman chorus.

LILY SMALLS (Margaret Cowan), asks her image in the mirror, "Where did you get that face?" in the drama, "Under Milkwood."

JOYCE TEAGUE and Diane Cooper assist each other in making skirts and consequently add to their spring wardrobes.

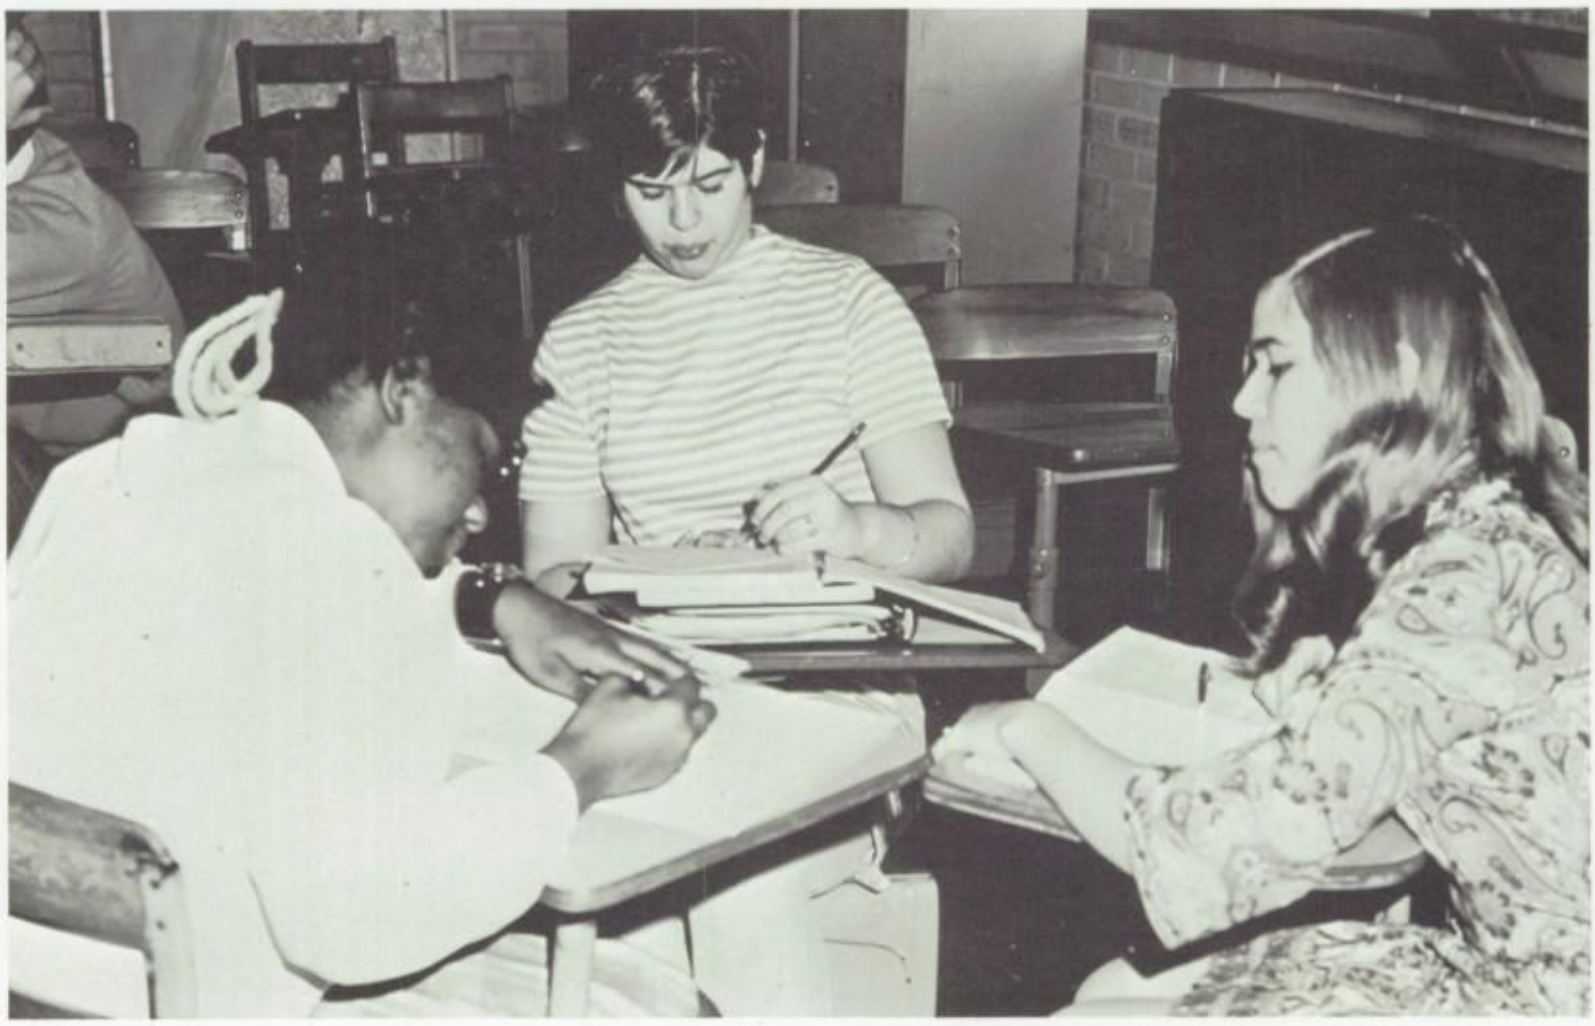


STUDENTS TAKE TO PRACTICAL ARTS COURSES WITH VERVE, VIGOR, VENGEANCE

SUSIE RYAN, Jon May, and Claudia Rogers find the typing room helpful during their unassigned time.

SOPRANO SECTION of the mixed chorus await the rise of the curtain on the pre-Christmas program.

LATIN I STUDENTS Wynell Colbert, Janice Barham, and Cheryl Rixmann are hung up on verb conjugations.



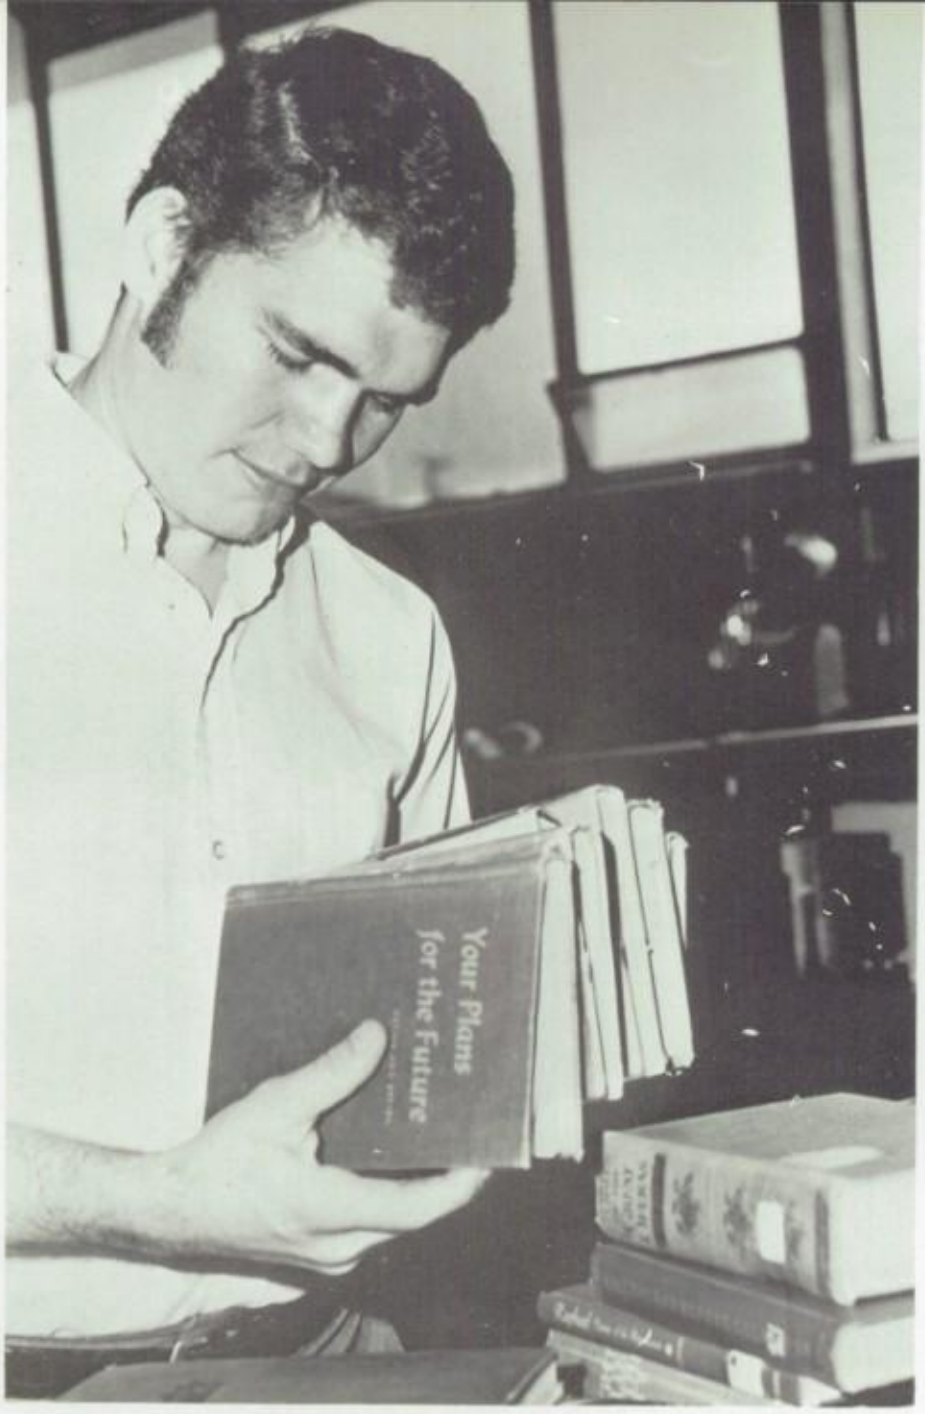
CHORUS AND DRAMA UNITE TO PRESENT "THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS"

MA AND PA (Margaret Muller and Ken Bohan) are ready for a "long winter nap."

THE "YOUNGSTERS" dance in gleeful anticipation of Santa's arrival.

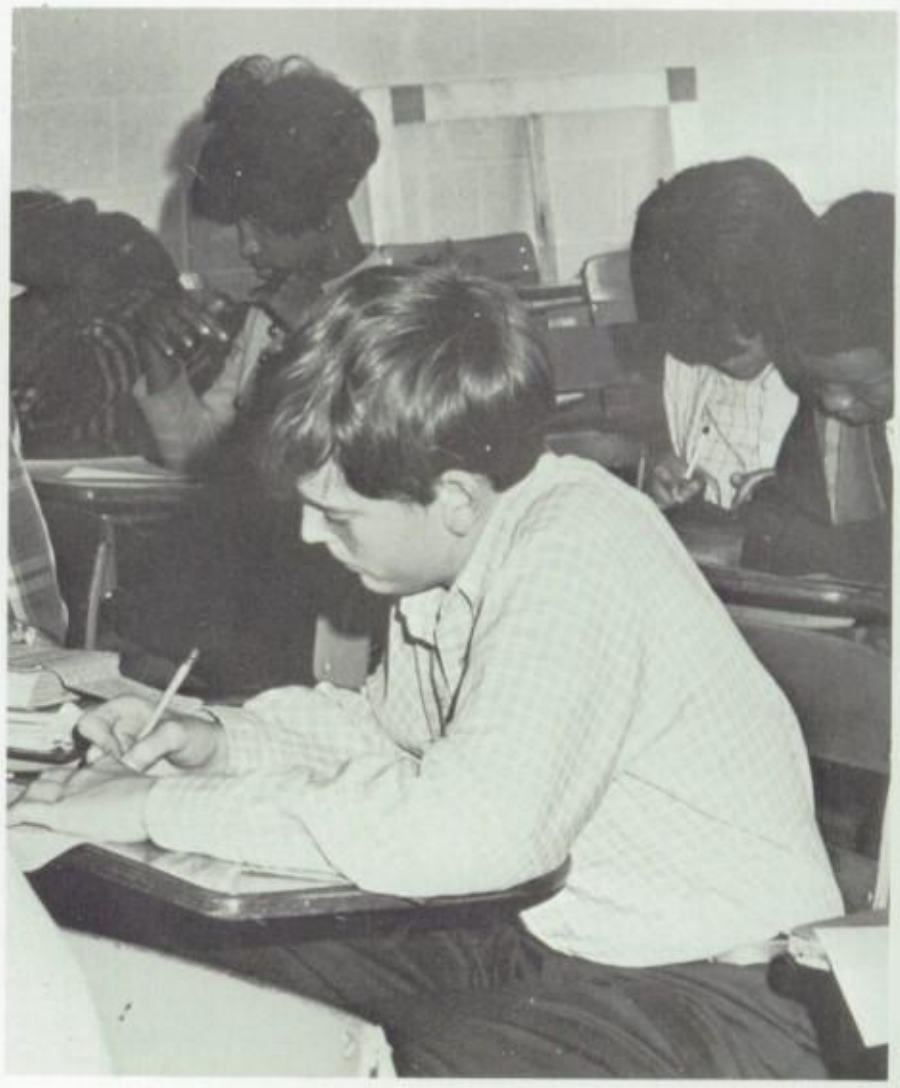
CAROLYN MUNOZ, narrator, watches a nagging wife (Margaret Muller) berate her two dead husbands, Ogmore and Prichard (Mike McCabe and Phil Zablatnik) during the drama "Under Milkwood."

ALMOST ECLIPSED by an easel, Nancy Seefeldt works on a seascape in advanced Art class.



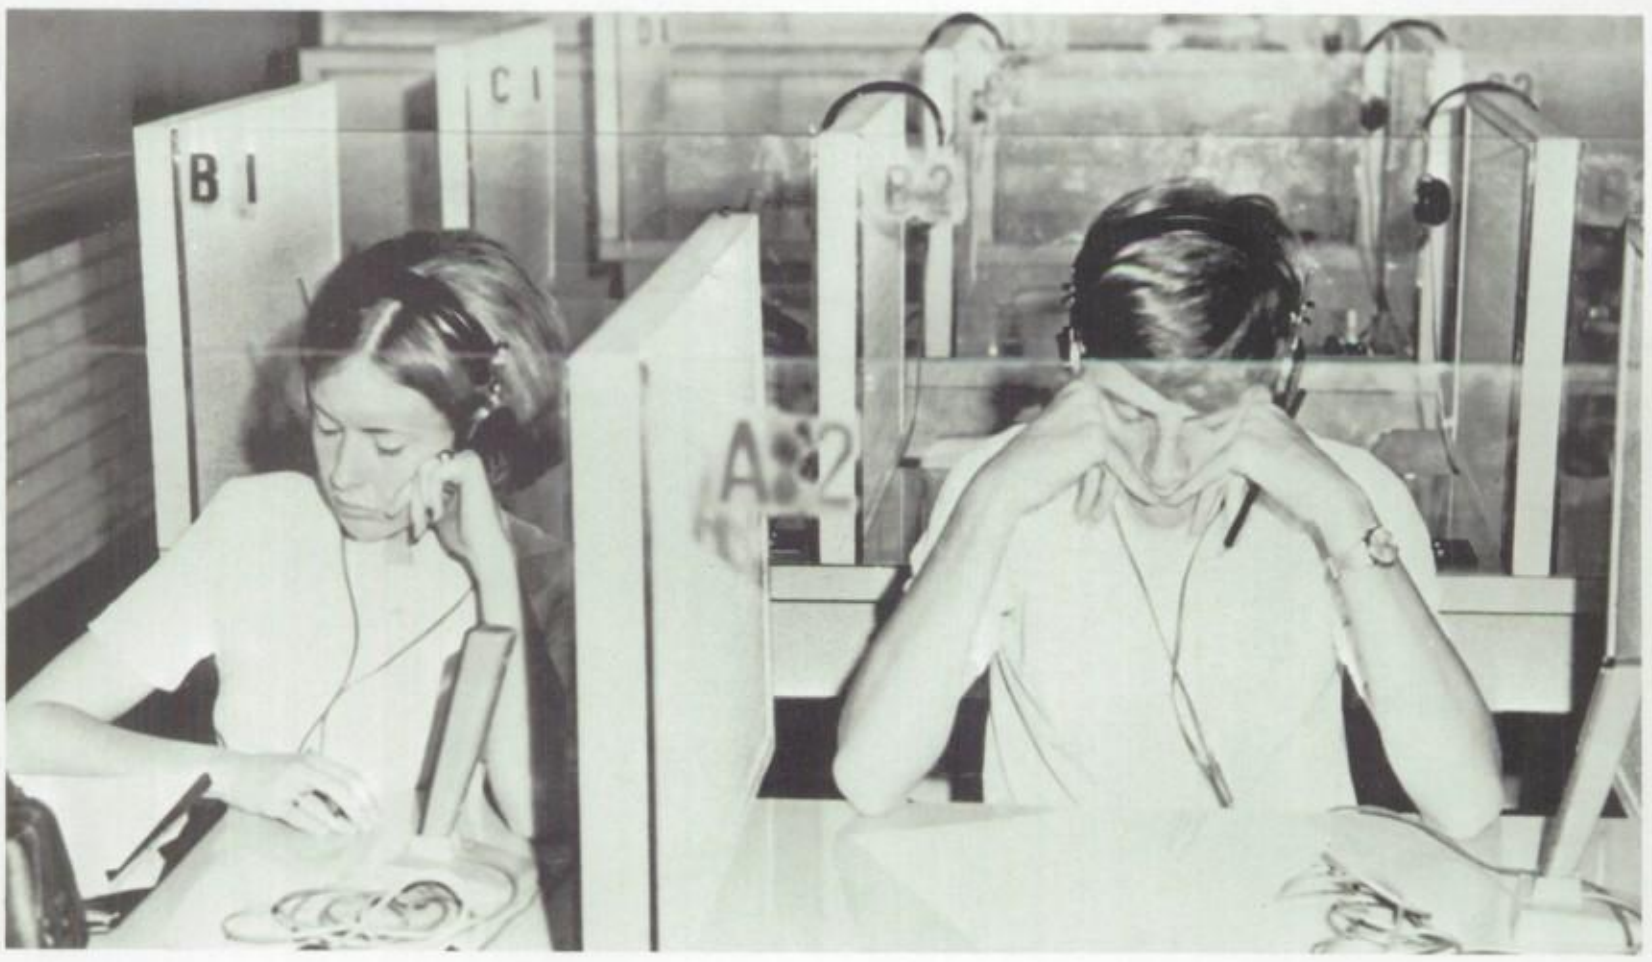
MIKE PITT seems reluctant to turn in those books about plans for the future.

CHRIS PERRAULT, Charlotte Matthews, Tina McBride, and Barry Johnson worry over Algebra I.



ACTIVITY IS

TAKING THE National Spanish Honor test from a tape is a real challenge for Lois Byler and Gerry Green.



SISTER CAROLYN'S Spanish conversation quiz forces Mike Archer, Teresa Culwell, and Sheila Gabler to put on their thinking caps.

THE KEYWORD IN ALL AREAS OF MHS

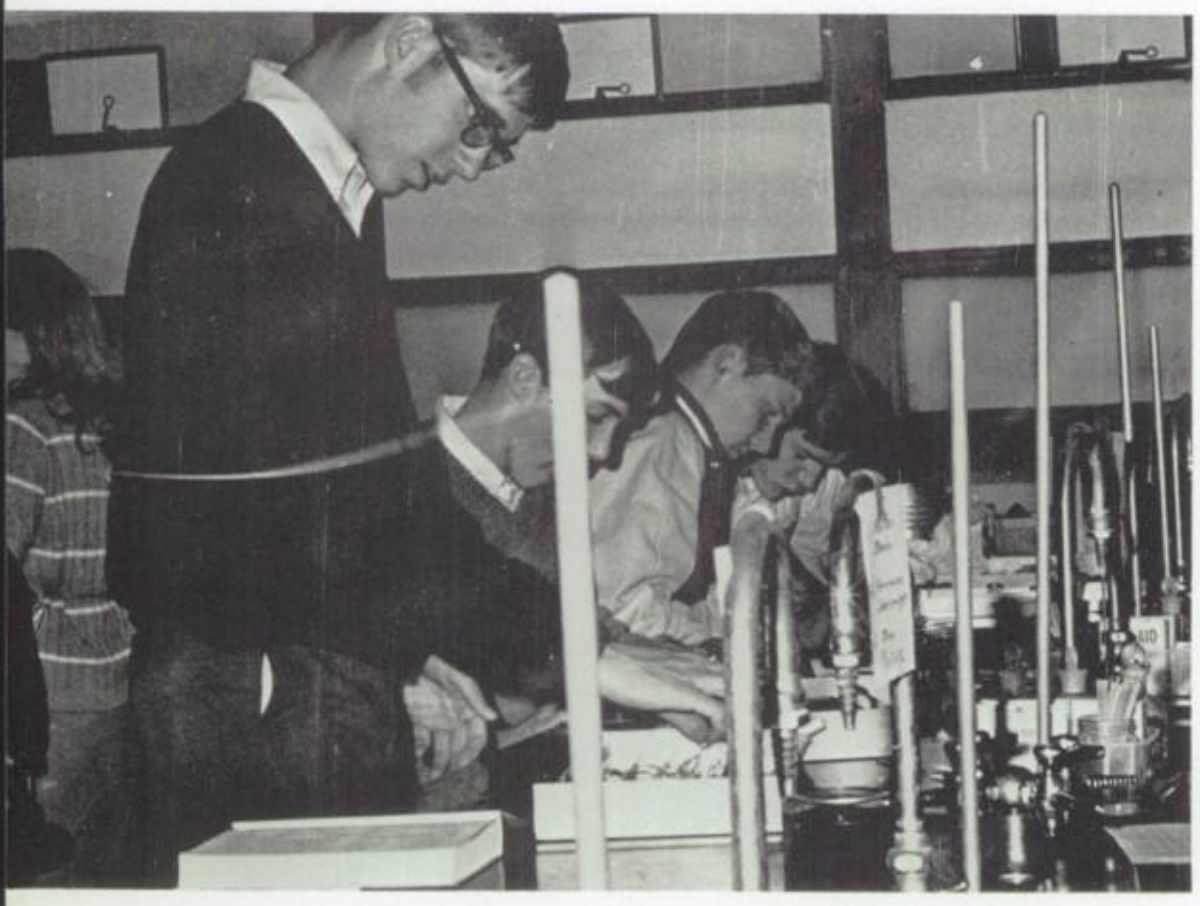
OKLAHOMA HISTORY instructor, Mr. Frank Hughes, peps up his lecture class with a joke about the coach who sent a boy to his office to see if he was there; the boy couldn't figure out why he didn't phone the office to find out if he was in.

THIS CLOSETFUL of garments was produced by the girls in Home Ec.

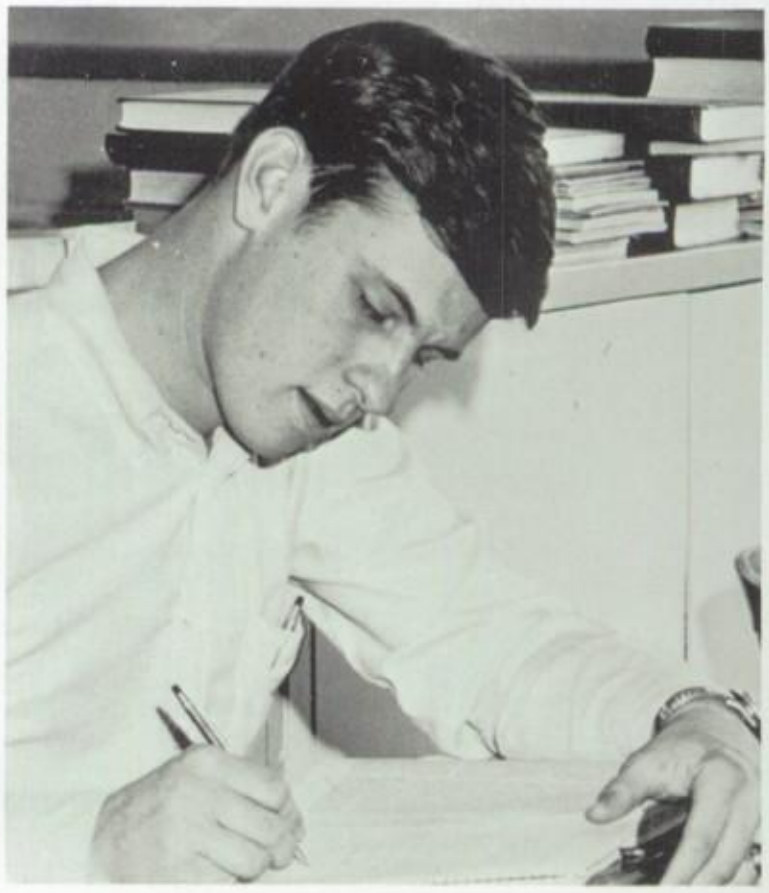
PEGGY McKENNA makes another jacket for the closet display.

PRACTICAL ARTS

A HARD WORKING class ponders the secrets of Chemistry.



SOCIAL STUDIES keeps students busy, as Greg Marino can attest.



JUST A SECTION of the fifty typists who are trying to improve their speed and accuracy, during one of the morning mods.

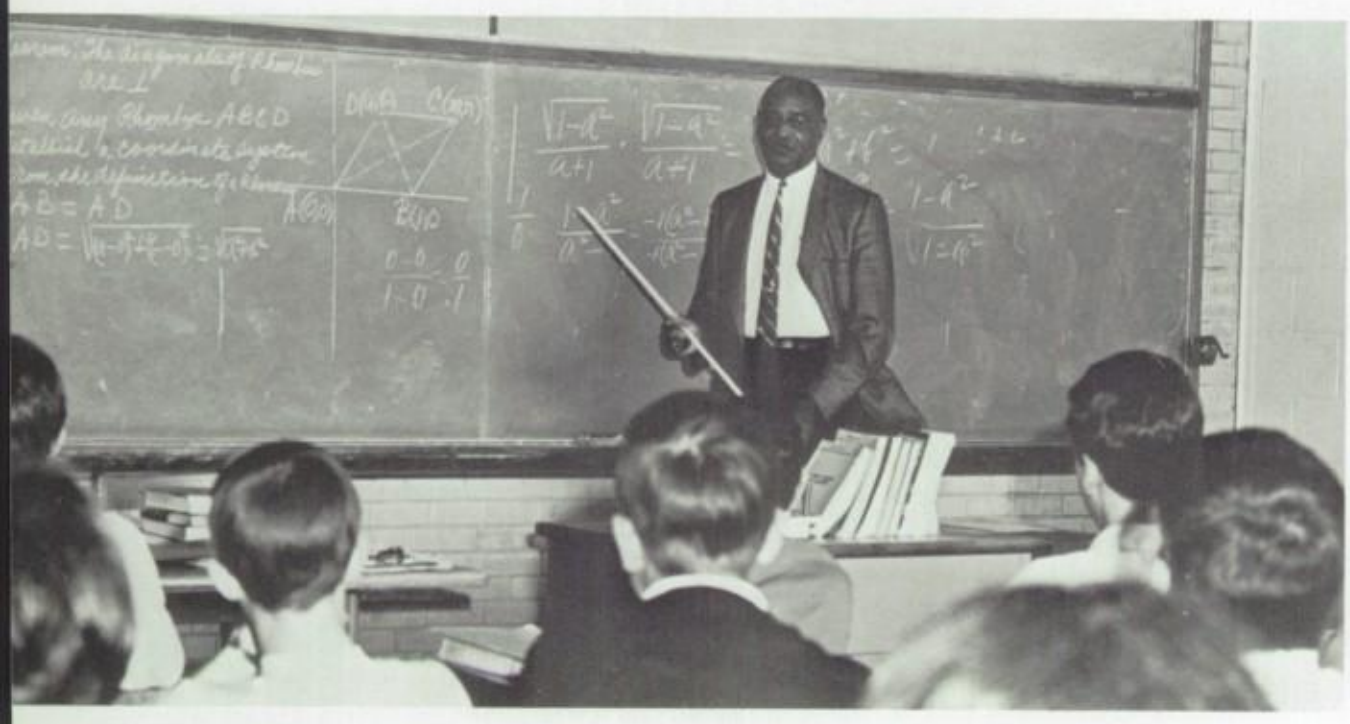
COMPETE WITH ACADEMIC

LABORING OVER the refraction of light are Richard Sloan, Alice Murphy, Steve Knorr, and Tim Trosper, along with other unidentifiable characters.

CHRIS HUSTON "tells it like it is " in the Men and Issues class.

BETTY PERRAULT, John Hernandez, and Tom Zynda, pursue individual interests in the library.

KELLY DOUGHERTY, Risa Ryland, and Katy Trosper enjoy the informal atmosphere of the Spanish room.



MR. DURHAM clarifies the intricacies of Algebra for one of his small group classes.

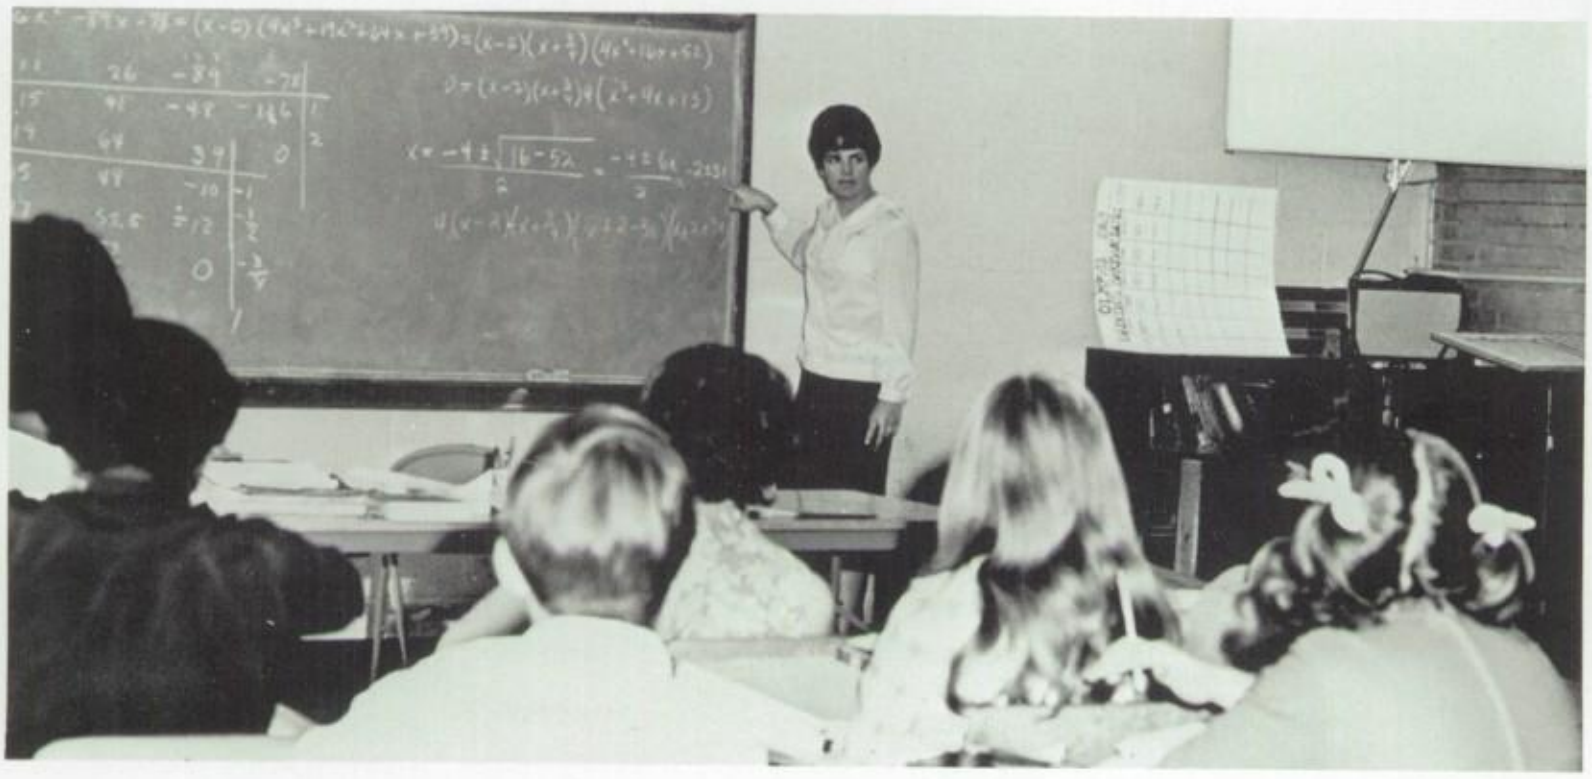
IN THE QUEEN'S Players' production of Dylan Thomas' "Under Milkwood," the captain (Mike McCabe) stares into the past.

DURING unassigned time Glenda Mounts and Peggy Woods perform services as library assistants.

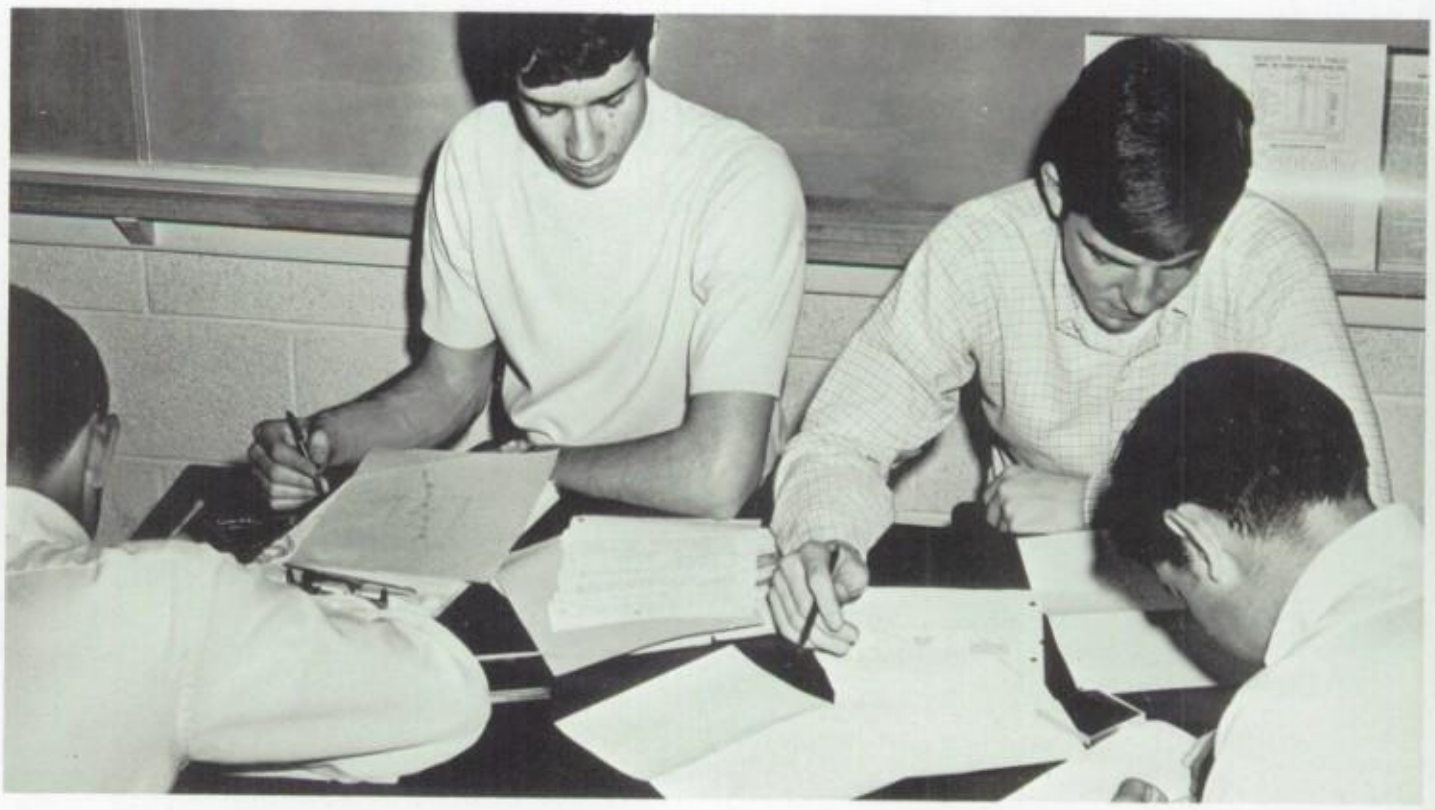
SINCE THEY have adjoining lockers, Susie Ruzicka and Glenda Mounts meet pretty often.

MR. JACK DVORAK'S Journalism class gathers ideas in layout by studying daily newspapers and by listening to the catalog of their journalistic errors.

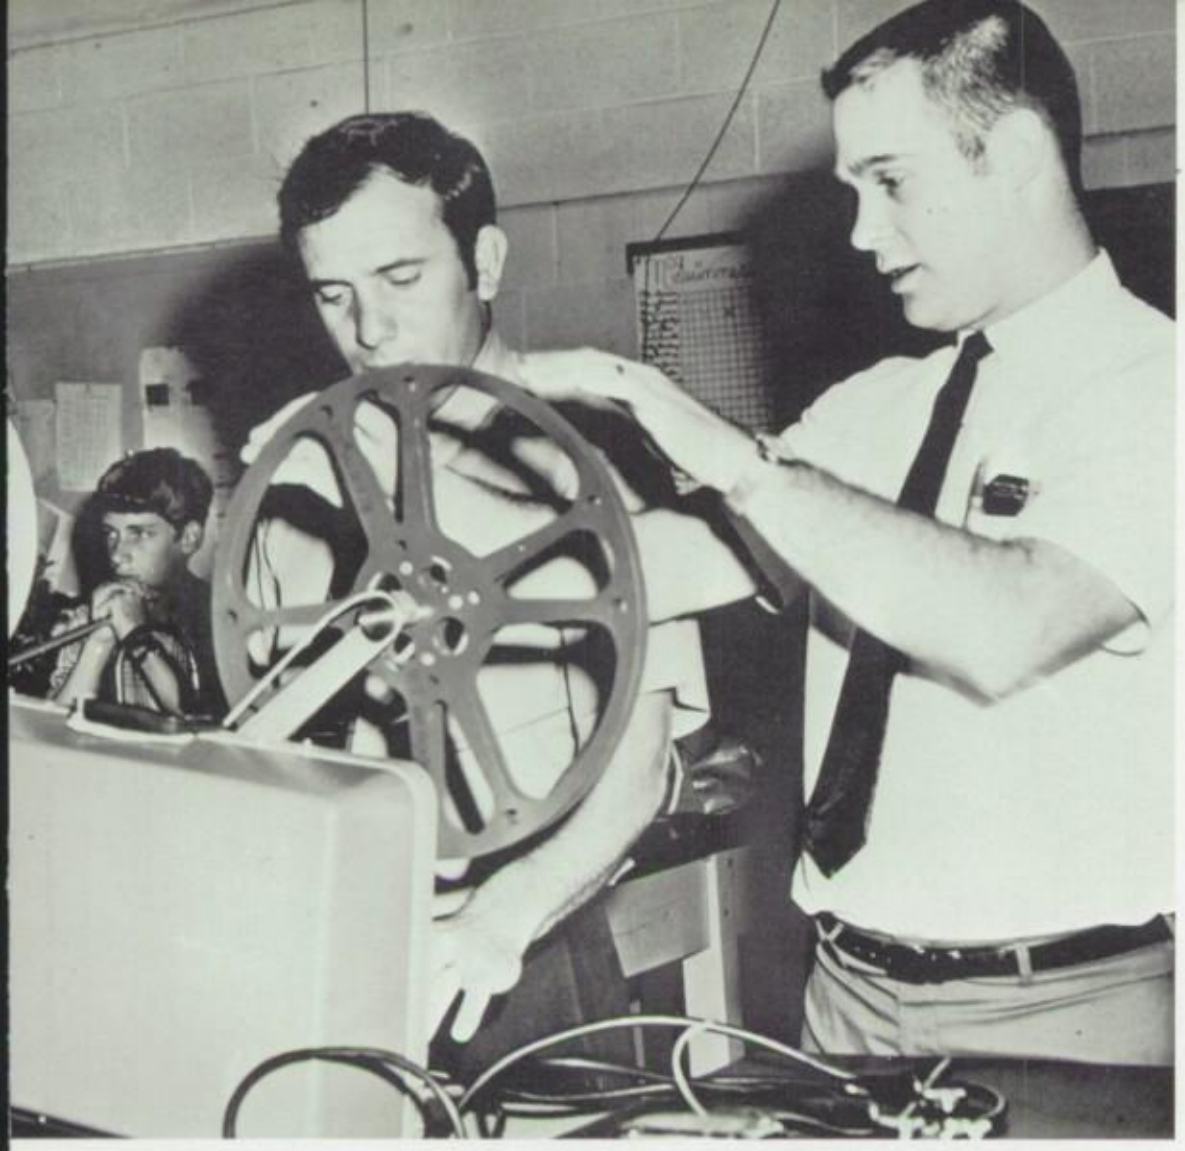
SISTER PETER CHANEL conducts a special English class for Latin American students, Maria and Teresa de la Rosa, and Rosario Cadena.



MISS SYLVIA BROWN explains quadratics to a division of her Algebra II class.



JOHN GAVULA, John Parks, John Hernandez, and Tom Zynda write the results of a Physics experiment.



WHILE THE CAMERA shy Biology class waits, Mr. Don Piccolo and Mr. Henry Aaron get ready to present a film on the circulation of the blood.

VICKI LYNN MILES poses with the trophy and blue ribbon certificate she won at the Science Fair.

FOR HER EXPERIMENT on the effects of liquid latex on the circulatory system of rats, Sophomore Vicki Lynn Miles placed third in the Oklahoma City Science Fair.

WENDY WONDERS how she can reattach Peter Pan's shadow.

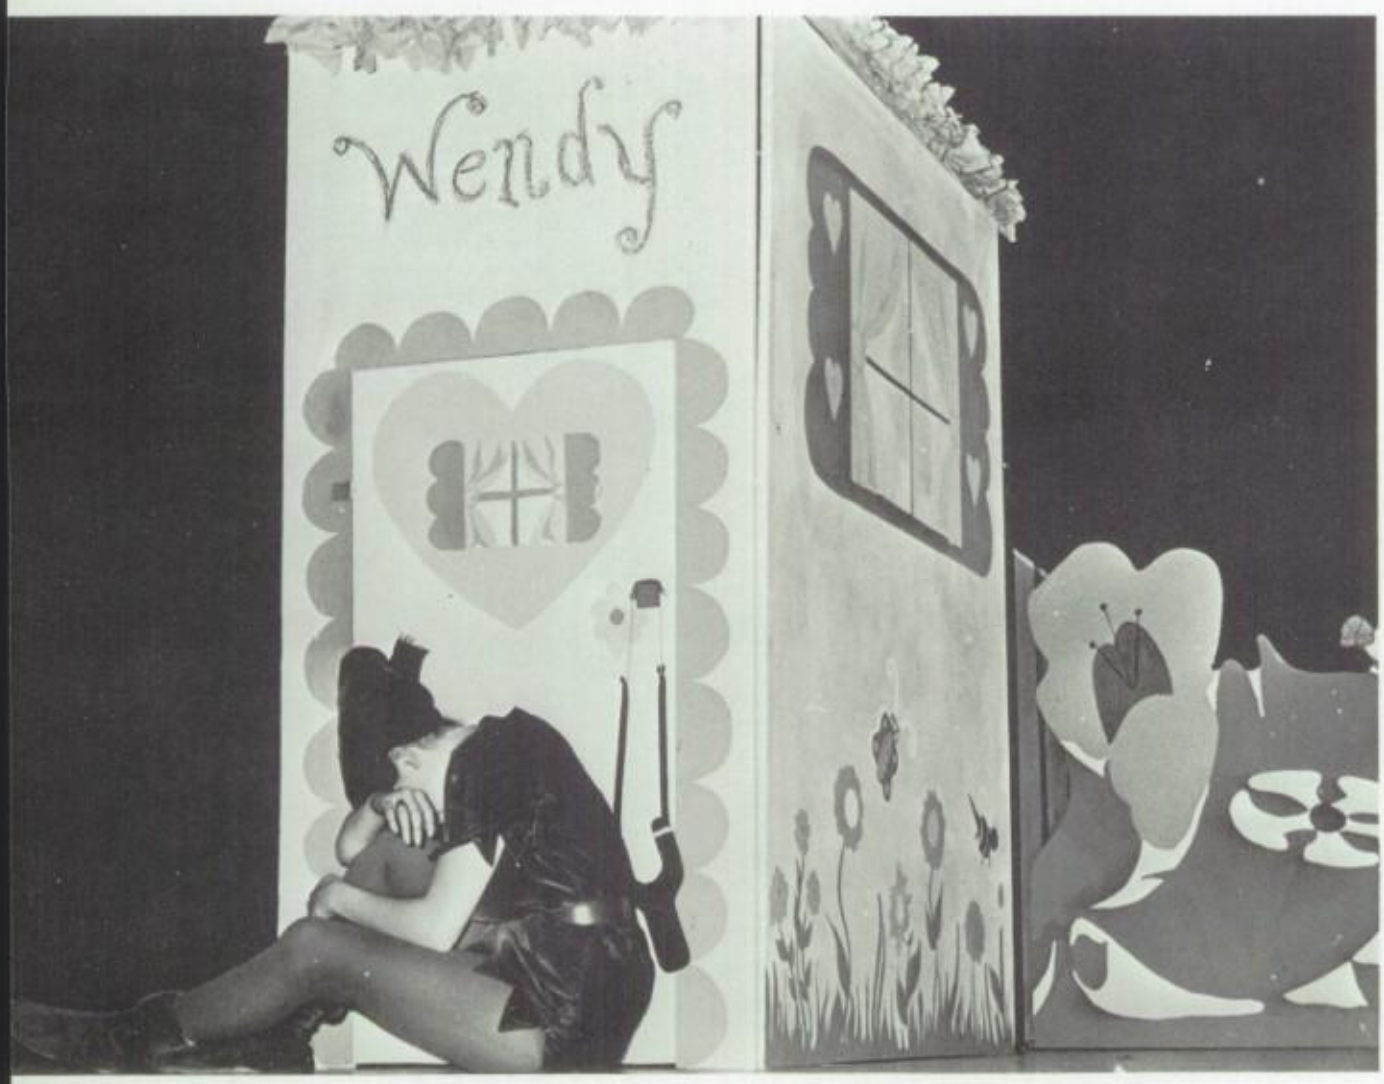
THE INDIANS keep watch over the entrance to Peter Pan's cave when the lost boys prepare for bed.

"PETER PAN" — PRESENTED IN

Under the direction of Mrs. Mary Ed Porter, the Queen's Players presented Charles Jeffries' adaptation of "Peter Pan."

Peter Pan, the leader of a colony of lost boys, loses his shadow in the nursery of the Darling family. As Wendy, the eldest of the Darling children, sews on Peter's shadow, he asks her to return with him and be a mother to the lost boys. In Never Never Land the lost boys are captured, along with Wendy, by Captain Hook and made to walk the plank. Peter Pan rescues them, and Wendy returns to Earth with her two brothers.

PETER PAN guards Wendy's house in Never, Never Land.



WENDY TELLS the Darling family's pet dog, "Nana," not to worry; she and her brothers are leaving for Never, Never Land.

CAPTAIN HOOK has just discovered that his blundering shipmates were unable to kill Tiger Lily.

THE OLYMPICS schedule extended from Feb. 16, to April 12.

GOVERNOR DEWEY BARTLETT lights the MHS Olympic torch on the steps of the state Capitol. S. C. President, Bill Carey, assisted by a relay of fourteen runners, begins the forty-five-block race to the school.

Engineered by the Student Council, the annual MHS Olympics is an all-school event, involving Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen. With the exception of Sports, from which the varsity teams are excluded, all areas are open to all students.

Standard events include a talent contest, Practical and Fine Arts exhibits, a ten and fifteen mile hike, various types of games and sports, and a scholastic meet. The latter features spelling, original poetry and short story writing, drama, speech, and a scholastic bowl.

This year the Seniors won with an aggregate of 16,000 points. Freshmen came second, followed closely by the Juniors, in the 12,000 point bracket. Last came the Sophomores trailing with approximately 8,000 points.

CAROLYN MUNOZ, accompanied by Ginger Whitton, sings her own arrangement of a selection from "Oliver."

SOPHOMORE, Vicki Miles, Speech finalist, delivers an excerpt from a eulogy on Dr. Martin Luther King.

FRESHMAN, Cheryl Rixmann, entertains with a tap dance to a "Tijuana Brass" record.

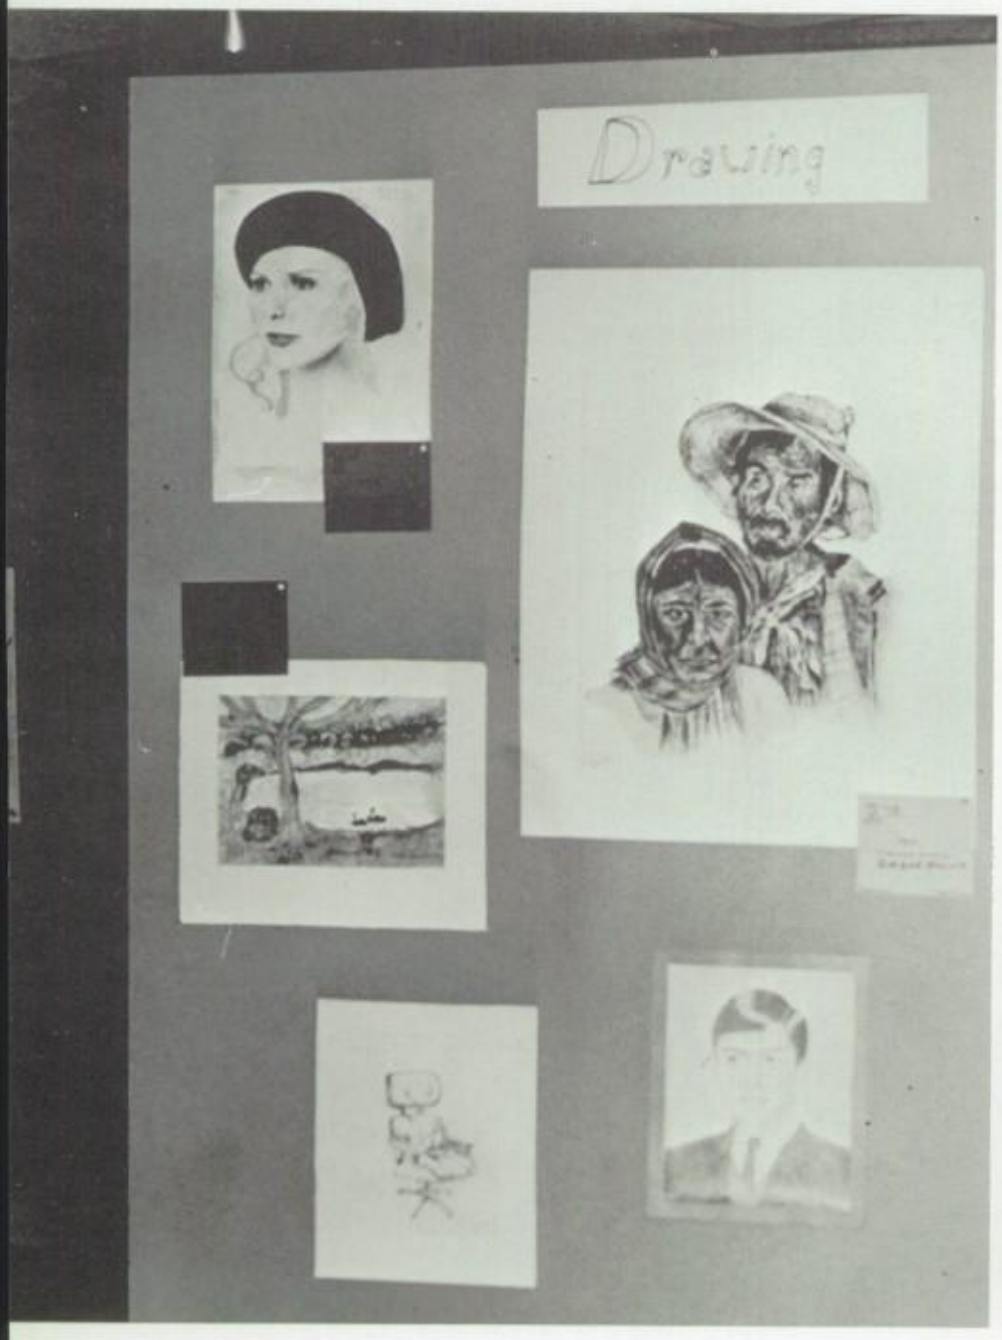
GLORIA GREEN and Richard Bradley placed second for their cutting from "The Taming of the Shrew."

FIRST PLACE in Speech went to Carolyn Munoz for her humorous interpretation of the birthday party in "Winnie the Pooh."

"WHERE HAVE All the Children Gone?" was Tobi Cox's selection as a finalist in the Speech contest.

WINNING OLYMPIC ART entries were displayed in the Art show case: Suzy Goetz, 2nd place in Painting; Celeste Reinauer, 2nd in Crafts; John Gavula, 1st in Painting; and Susie Ruzicka, Honorable Mention in Painting.

WINNERS in the Drawing section were: Gina Telcocci, Betsy Thompson, and Ginger Kosciuk.



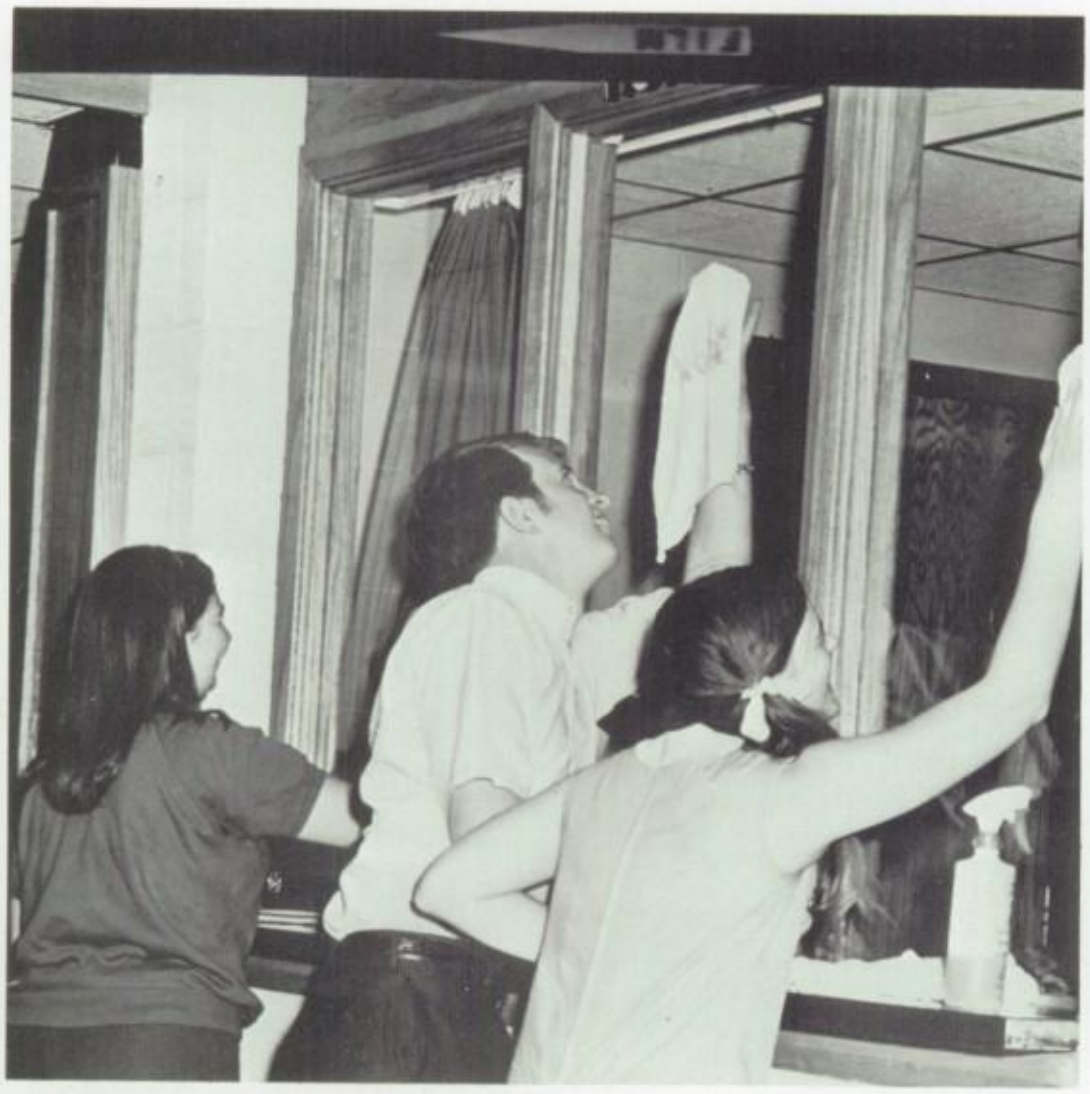
THIS UNIQUE "PICTURE" earned first place for John Gavula. He simply stretched and framed a cotton shoe-polish cloth, used for brown and black polish over a period of two years. How about that for modern Art!

EACH TEAM has a Senior, Junior, Soph., and Frosh member. The Green team won by a slender margin.

OLYMPICS REVEAL LATENT TALENTS

VICKY LOVELESS sings the theme song from the musical "Kismet." Greg Khoury is the accompanist. Greg won first place in a piano solo.

ALL WRAPPED UP in a cast, Preston, one of the Brogdon twins, and a Freshman, sings the popular "Proud Mary" accompanied by Pete Winkler on the drums, and Mike Rodriguez, on the guitar.



EACH CLASS opted for a specific "rise and shine" act. Seniors Jane Ann Trosper, Randy Keltner, and Susan Lee do their bit for the ticket booth.

JOHN ZIEGLER has a right to be proud of his cake; it won an Olympic award.

OLYMPICS END WITH FIELD DAY EVENTS

THE SENIORS defeat the Freshmen in the Volleyball finals.

SOME SUCCEED; some fail; but everybody tries, as Mark Dobelbower is doing here.

TRICYCLE RACES amuse the onlookers as well as the participants.

BY DEFEATING the Seniors in a Tug-o'-War, the Sophomores bring the Olympics to a victorious finish in the final event on Field Day.

MEMBERS of the Science Club are, Kyle Johnson, President, Mary Botchlet, Jane Ann Trosper, Kelly Dougherty, Sharon McGrath, and Jerry Newhouse.

SCIENCE CLUB ATTRACTS TOP STUDENTS

SISTER ALBAN ROHR, Moderator of the Science Club, meets with the officers: Kyle Johnson, President; Jane Ann Trosper, Vice-President; Sharon McGrath, Treasurer.

STUDENT COUNCIL IS A VITAL GROUP

BILL CAREY opens the school day on the Inter-com. with a prayer and the salute to the flag, followed by announcements.

LINDA CAVANAUGH and Belinda Hernandez check the S. C. bulletin board.

HI-NOTES OFFICERS Gayle Lucas, V.P. and Mary Lee Douglas, Sec.-Treas., confer with their president, Mary Hochgraefe, about the next performance of the Oklahoma City Symphony.

Hi-Notes is a city-wide organization comprising, this year, thirteen schools. Sponsored by the Oklahoma City Symphony Women's Committee, the Hi-Notes are directed by Mrs. William Sanger, a member of the Women's Committee.

Officers of the member schools meet three times a year to discuss music appreciation, and to bid for the concerts and other performances they wish to attend.

Although the students commit themselves to usher on the nights they attend, they are not, by any means, an "ushering club." They are students privileged to hear and learn to appreciate the finest in music without being obligated to pay for that privilege.

Moderator for the MHS group is Mr. James L. Capps, choral instructor.

HI-NOTES CLUB ASSISTS O.C. SYMPHONY

SEVENTEEN WILLING volunteers comprise the MHS unit of the Hi-Notes. They are: Maureen Brennan, Cheryl Rixmann, Gayle Lucas, Dianne Brown, Wynell Colbert, Marilyn Brown, Mary Lee Douglas, Ann Child, Georgia McQuaid, Mary Henke, Dorothy Bodine, Sarah Cavanaugh, Mary Jean Panza, Joann Corsin, Patti Moran, Peggy Morrow, and Mary Hochgraefe.

"Bigger and better production" was the aim of the Queen's Players this year. Under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Porter, the Players presented "Under Milkwood," by Dylan Thomas, Jeffries' "Peter Pan," and Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," the latter in modern costumes, sets and props.

The Players, a voluntary organization, is divided into committees according to the individual interest of each member. There are committees for costumes, make-up, props, lighting, sound effects, stage crews, and publicity.

Roles in the productions are assigned on a try-out basis, frequently with a double cast performing on alternate nights.

This year the Queen's Players displayed unusual ingenuity in designing sets, costumes, props, publicity programs, and advertising media.

VICKIE LOVELESS advertises Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," the 1969 final performance by the Queen's Players.

DRAMA, MUSIC, PAINTING, SCULPTURE, PROMINENT IN FINE ARTS CURRICULUM

BARBARA SCOTT and Vickie Loveless appear in "Peter Pan."

LIGHTING EFFECTS are important, as John Rosenhamer and his Operators' Club realize.

VOLUNTEER STAFF members, Susie Ryan, Sui San Mui, Sherri Nayfa, Claudia Rogers, and Karen Krisher spent two days of spring vacation working on layout. Sister Rosalie Teresa, Chi Rho moderator, helped with typing.

MIKE PITT, Jerry Kelly, and Jack Porbeck gave free mods to the yearbook. Editor, Barney Semtner, discusses cutlines with Jack Porbeck.

VOLUNTEER STAFF PRODUCED CHI RHO

TOP ADVERTISING solicitors, Mary Harrigan, Peggy Morrow, and Barney Semtner, earned free copies of the Chi Rho.

MARCIA BREJDA, Mike O'Hara, and Peggy Schrempp assure Mr. Dvorak that they will meet the deadline—but barely.

THE CHI RHOAN goes to press with pressmen, Jerry Kelly, Kyle Johnson, and David Sargent.

JOURNALISM CLASS PUBLISHED CHI RHOAN

EDITORS Peggy Schrempp, Denise Wall, and Pat Boulware meet with Chi Rhoan moderator, Mr. Jack Dvorak.

PEP CLUB, MOST POPULAR ORGANIZATION

THIS FUZZY looking group is approximately half the Pep Club. Cheerleaders are in the front row; officers just behind in the second row.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS, Linda Bravo, Pat O'Hern, Joan Dugan, Regina Romano, Malinda Sears, and Cindy Faulkner display their style.

of the same.

THE ACADEMIC COUNCIL meets periodically to assess and coordinate activities. Members are Sister Bertha Leiker, Sister Carolyn Leslie, Sister Joan M. Sanchez, Sister Alban Rohr, Sister Judith Tate, and Sister Florence Duval.

ACADEMIC COUNCIL MEMBERS EVALUATE SCHOOL POLICIES

MAUREEN BRENNAN, Susan Mendus, and Lydia Haferland help in the main office.

PAT HASKINS devotes her spare time to filing.

SHERRY DUMAS takes and delivers phone calls.

QUEEN'S PLAYERS, officers Katy Trosper, Vicki Loveless, Gloria Green, Carolyn Munoz, and Margaret Muller meet with Mrs. Mary Ed. Porter, Drama instructor.

JUNIOR CLASS favorites: Jerry Kelly and Claudia Rogers.

SENIOR CLASS favorites: Sharon McGrath and Barney Semtner.

ROUGH SEASON STYMIES IRISH

Although the 1968-69 Irish showed much promise, because of the fact that they had only two returning lettermen, a year of rebuilding was necessary. Injuries added a further drawback to inexperience.

Nevertheless as newly admitted members of the Okla. State Secondary Activities Association, the Irish faced opponents rated in the top ten AA teams in the state. These teams were Edmond, Northeast, Star Spencer, Classen, El Reno, Altus, and Kelley.

Tallying a 3-7 record, the Irish look forward to a good season in 69-70.

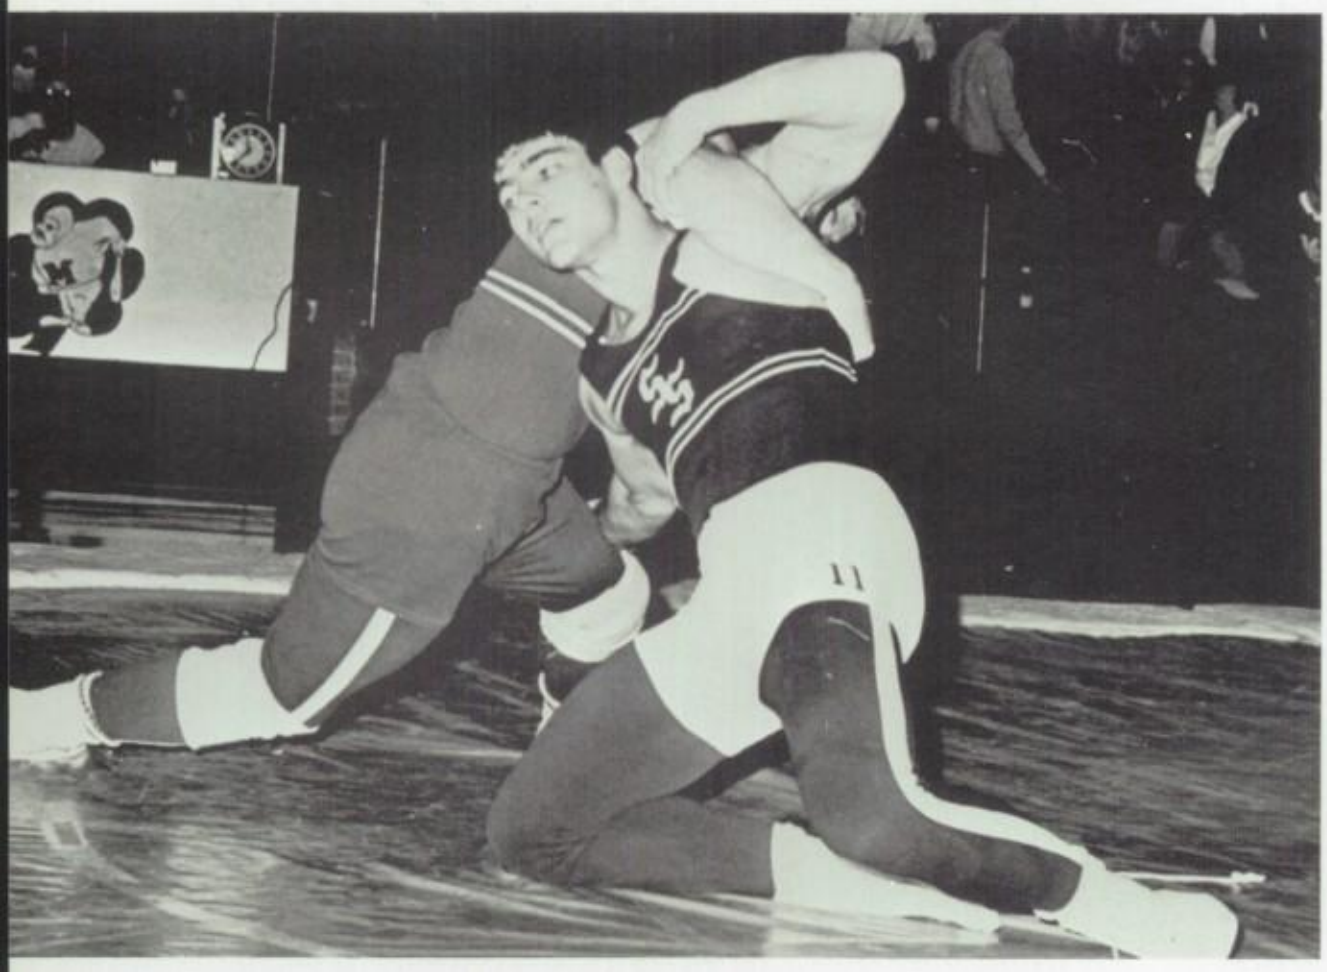
TEAM HOSTS FIRST MHS TOURNAMENT



HEAVYWEIGHT Jerry Pickett attempts to tangle his opponent with a "Fireman's Carry."

Opening with a contest versus the Classen "Comets," wrestling coach, Mr. Jim Capps, led his team into their second year of competitive wrestling.

Besides entering the usual Capital conference games, this year the team hosted the first McGuinness tournament. They also participated in the Carl Albert High School tournament, wrestled top teams such as Putnam City West, Choctaw, Ardmore, Hobart, Southeast, McLoud, Douglass, and Weatherford, and attended the district regionals at Pauls Valley.

Plagued with injuries from the beginning, the team had a 1-13 record this year. They had ten returning lettermen; next year they will have eleven returning lettermen.

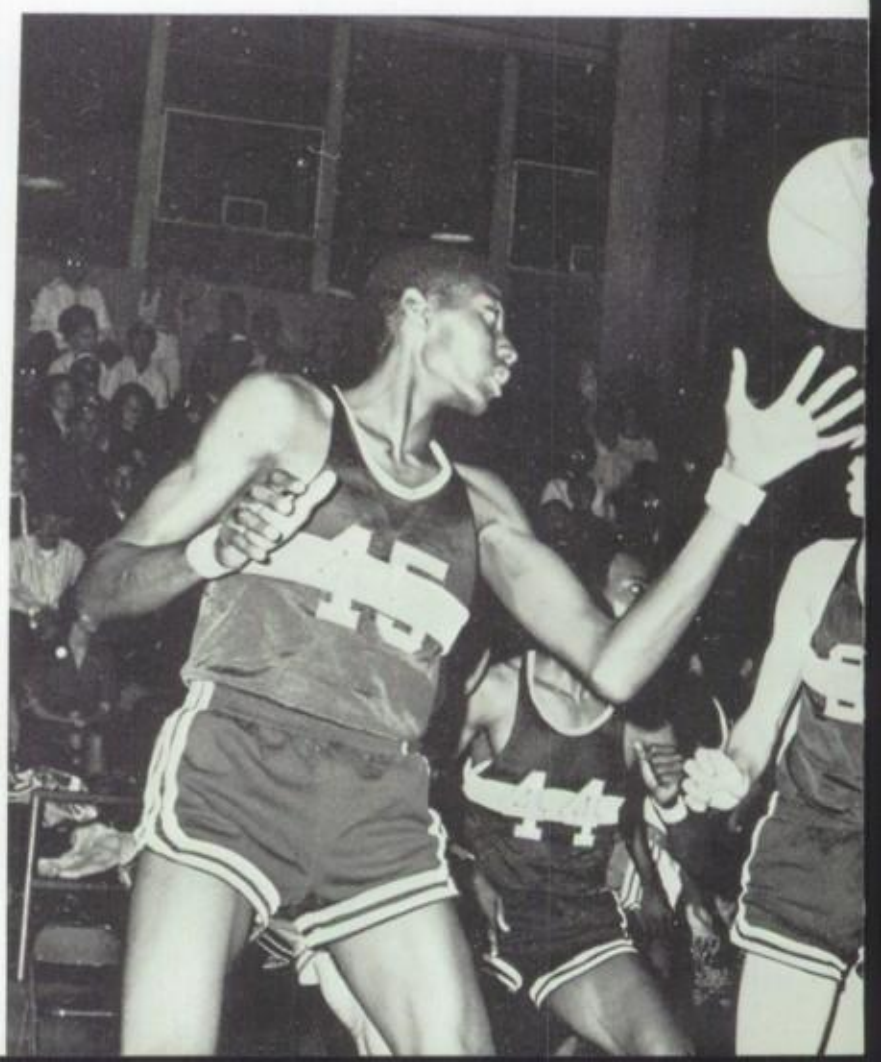
TEAM ADVANCED TO REGIONAL SEMI-FINALS

WHILE GUARD Earl Remmel watches, Jim Will launches two against Putnam City West.

With only one returning starter, the fighting Irish basketballers put together a winning season. Listing seven seniors and two sophomores, the varsity team closed out with 13 wins and 11 losses.

The team made a new record by winning first place in the Star Spencer tournament. This was the first time the MHS players had won a state-wide tourney. By defeating Star Spencer the Irish advanced into the regional semi-finals but were defeated there by Northeast High. In the McGuinness tournament the team placed third. Even though the roundballers finished fourth in the Capital Conference, bowing out to Northeast, Star Spencer, and Classen, they defeated Carl Albert, Choctaw, Southeast, Edmond, Putnam City West, and their two diocesan rivals, St. Mary's and Kelley.



SURROUNDED by Star Spencerians, Steve Knorr attempts to pass the ball to a teammate.

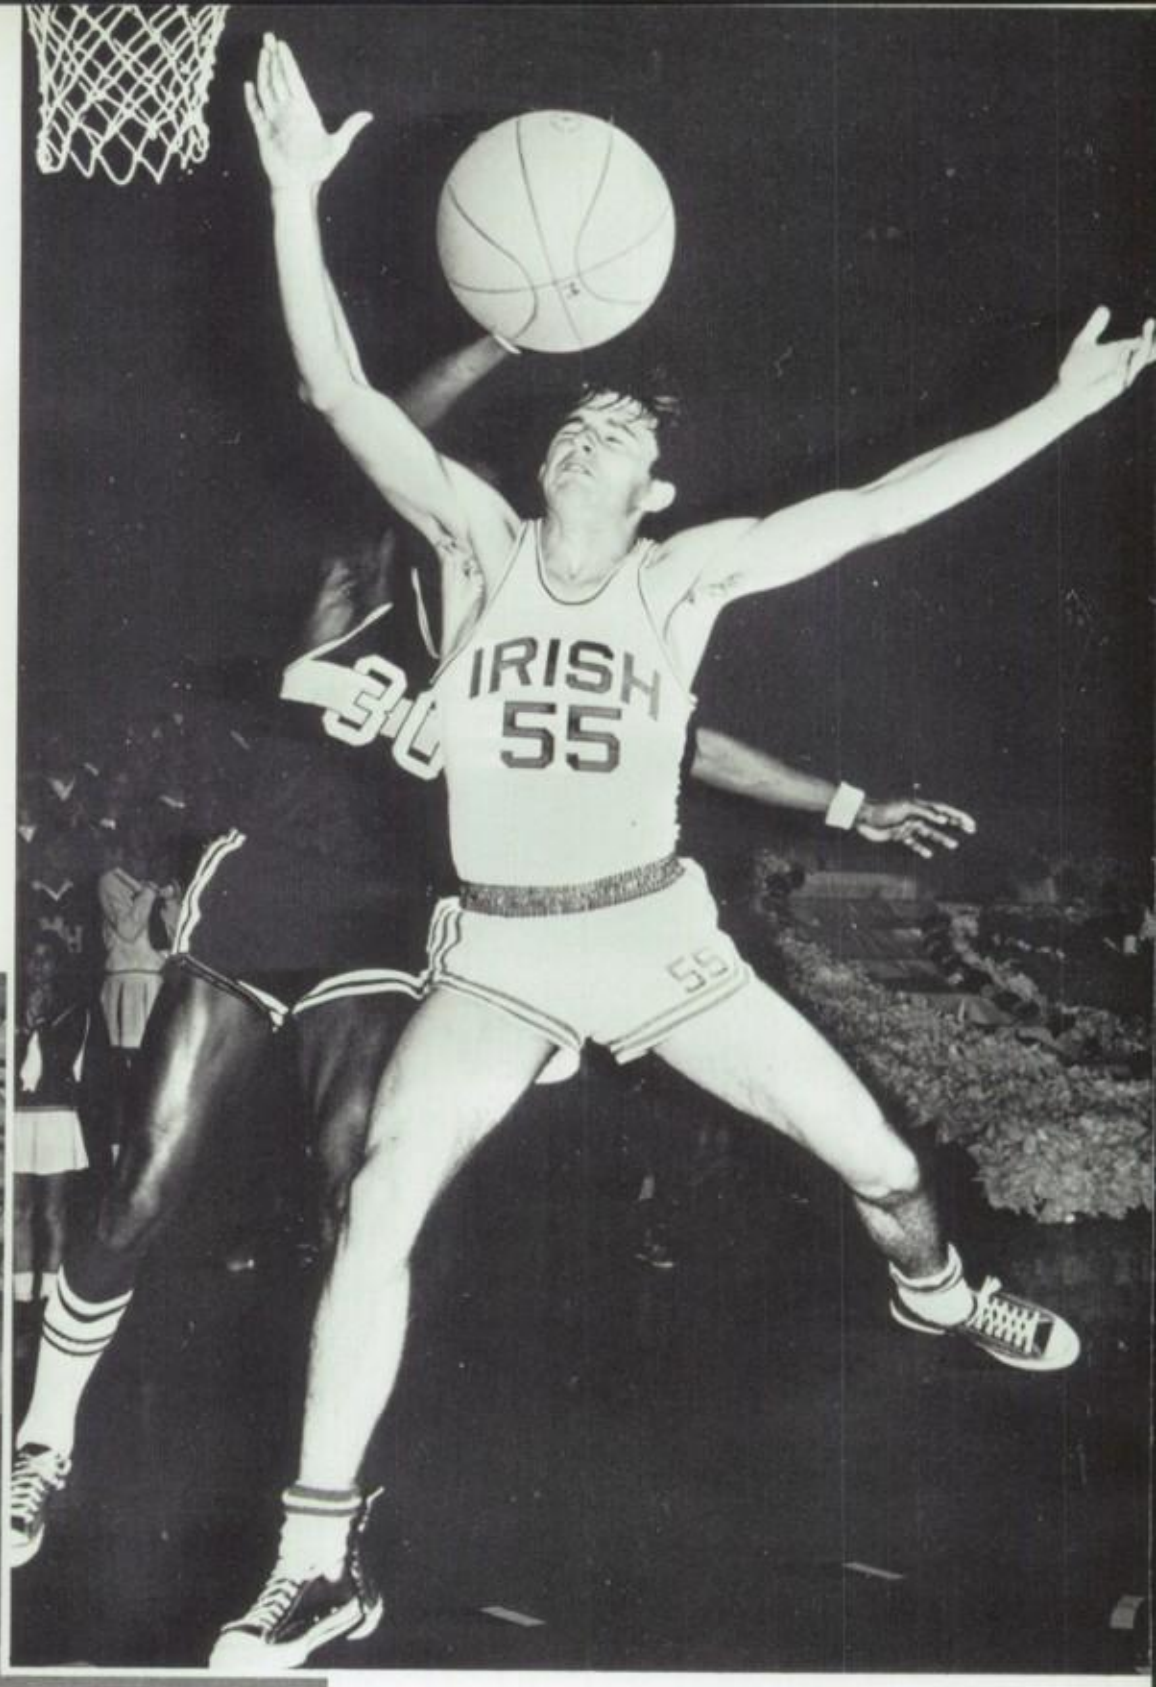
THEY SWAMPED STAR SPENCER

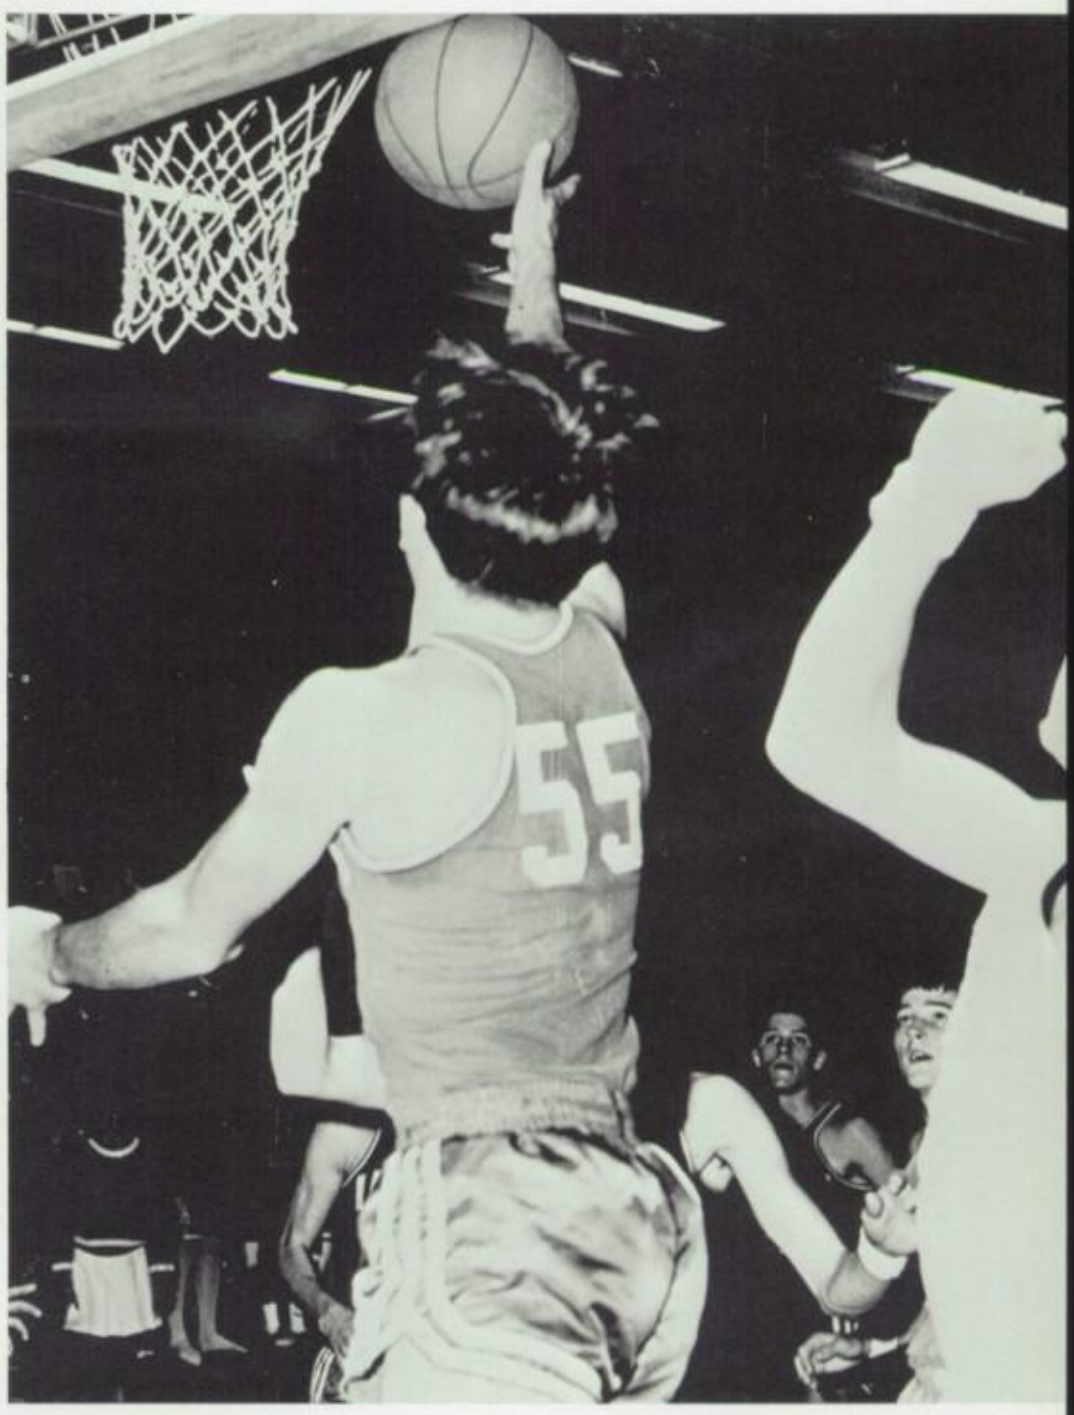
EXCEDRIN HEADACHE stuns senior man, Tommy Zynda, but ...



He scores again against Star Spencer when ...

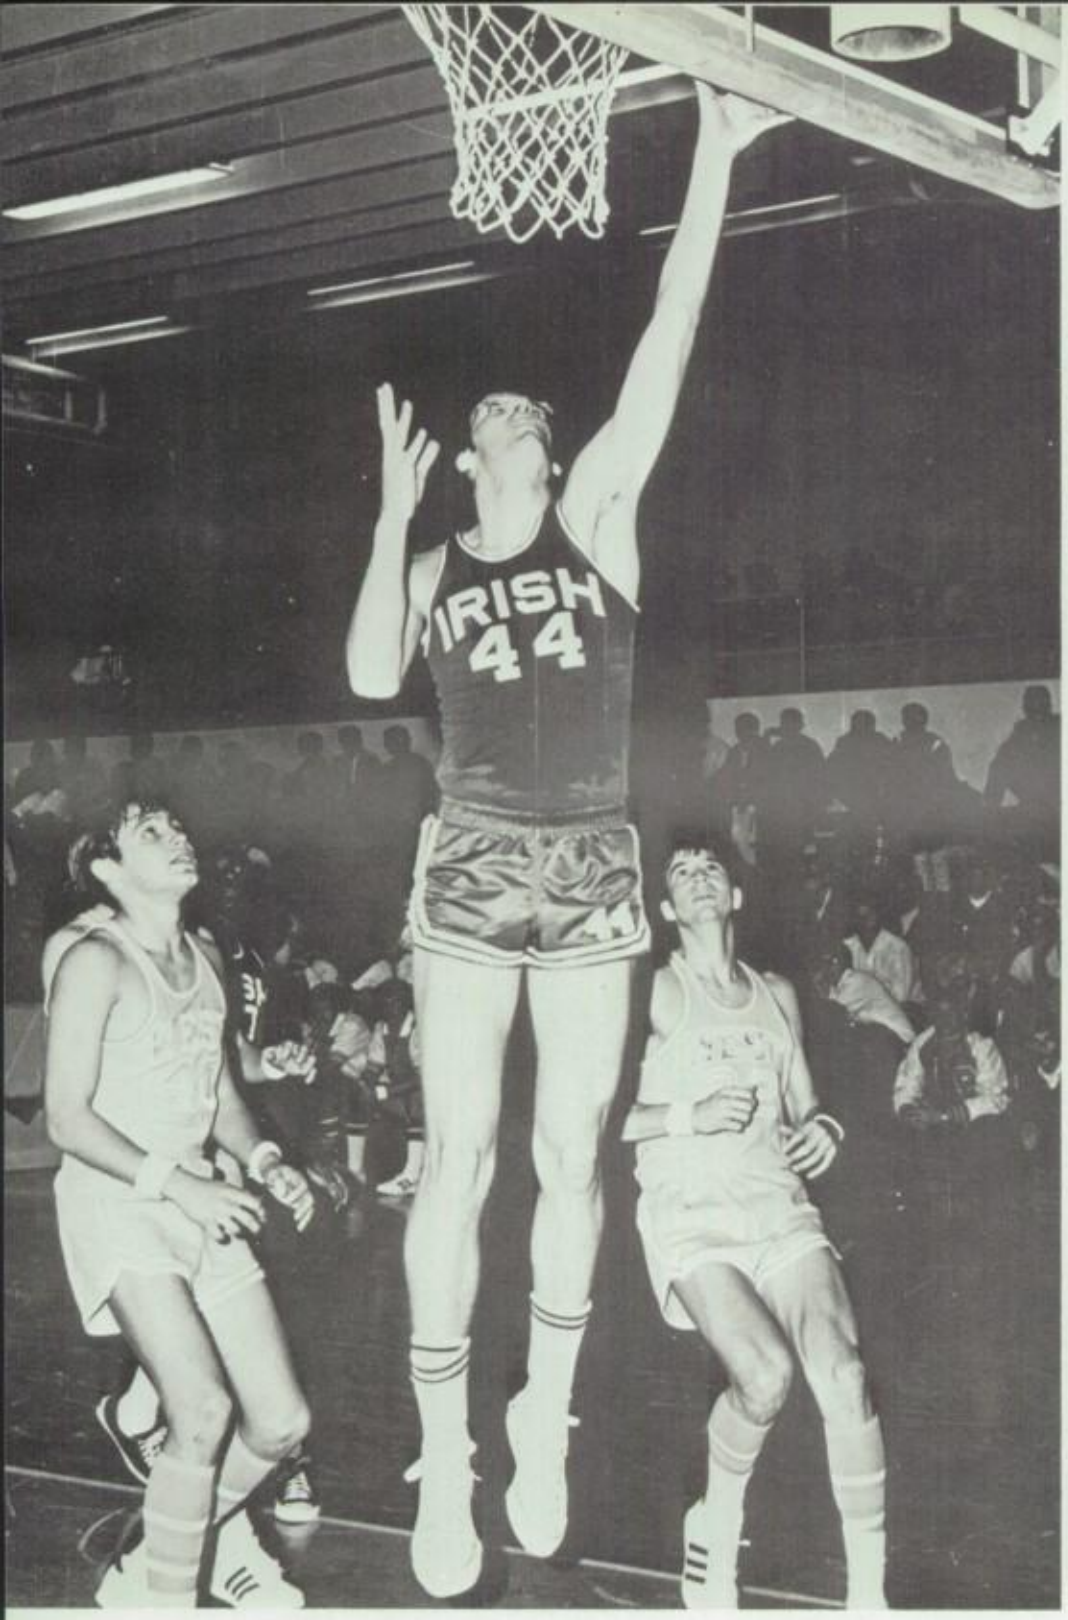
He tries that "old hidden ball" trick.

WITH JIM WILL'S moral support, Earl Remmel follows through against Putnam City West.

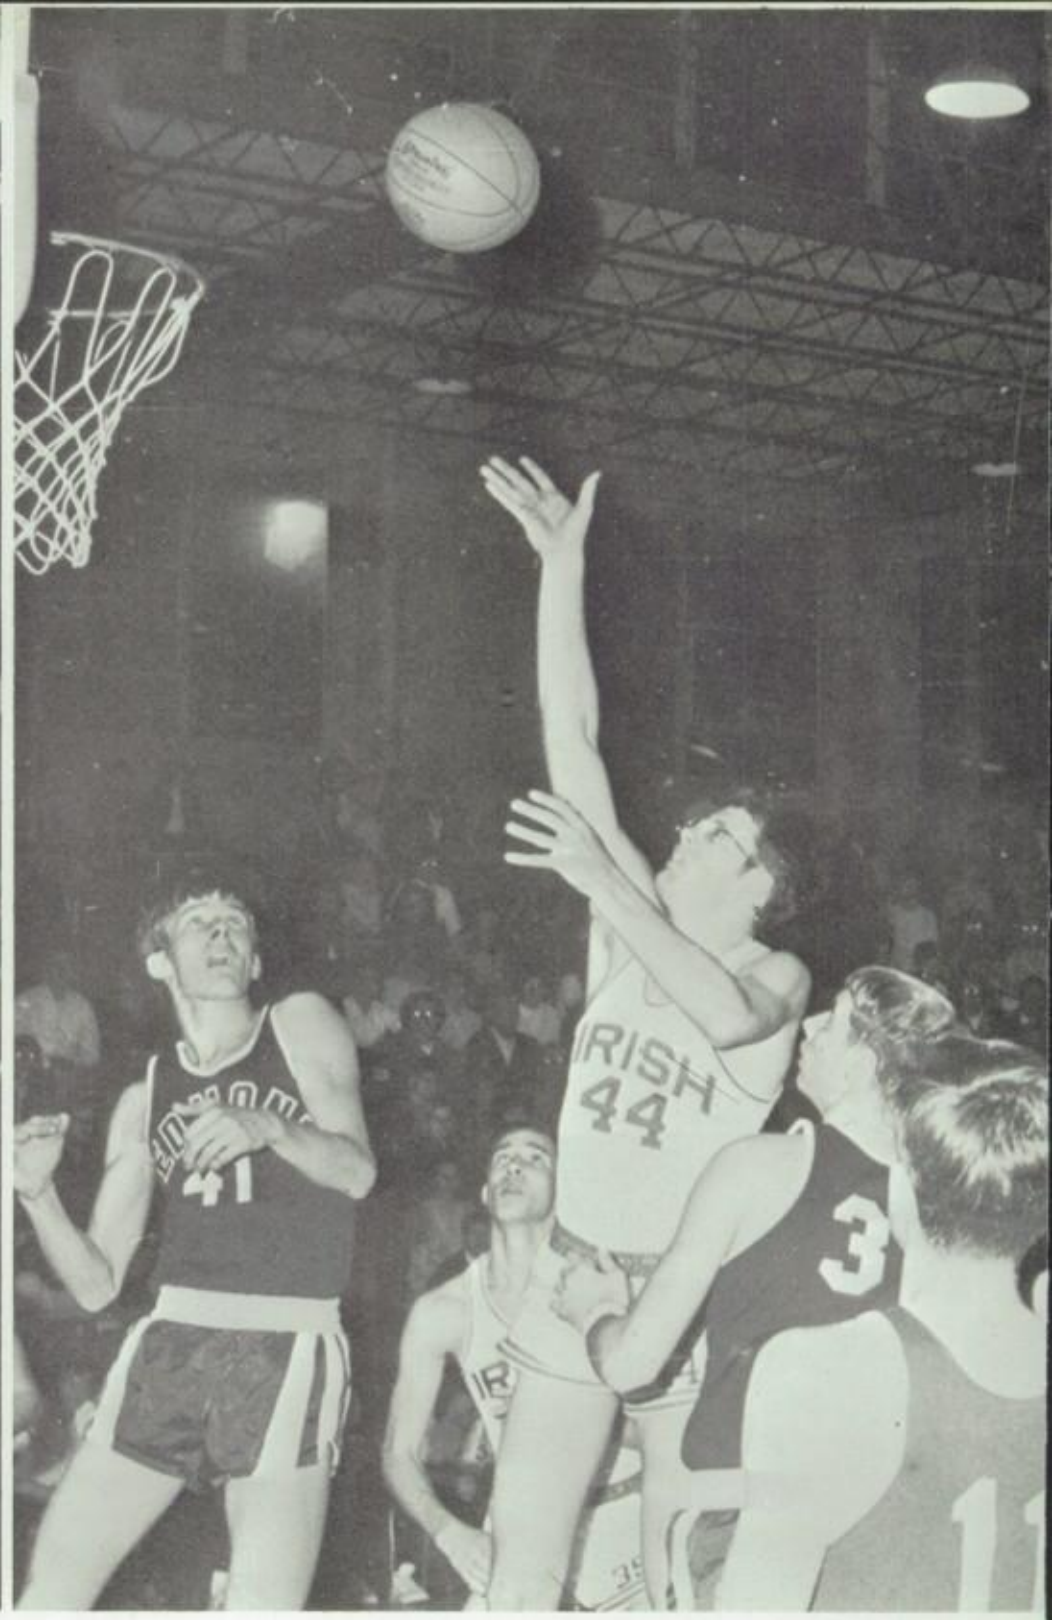


ZYNDA, the "Hulley Gully" man, sinks another basket for the Irish.

"GIMME THAT BALL," screams Jim Will, while John Gavula tensely awaits the outcome.



JIM WILL scores in green against West . . .



and in White against Edmond.

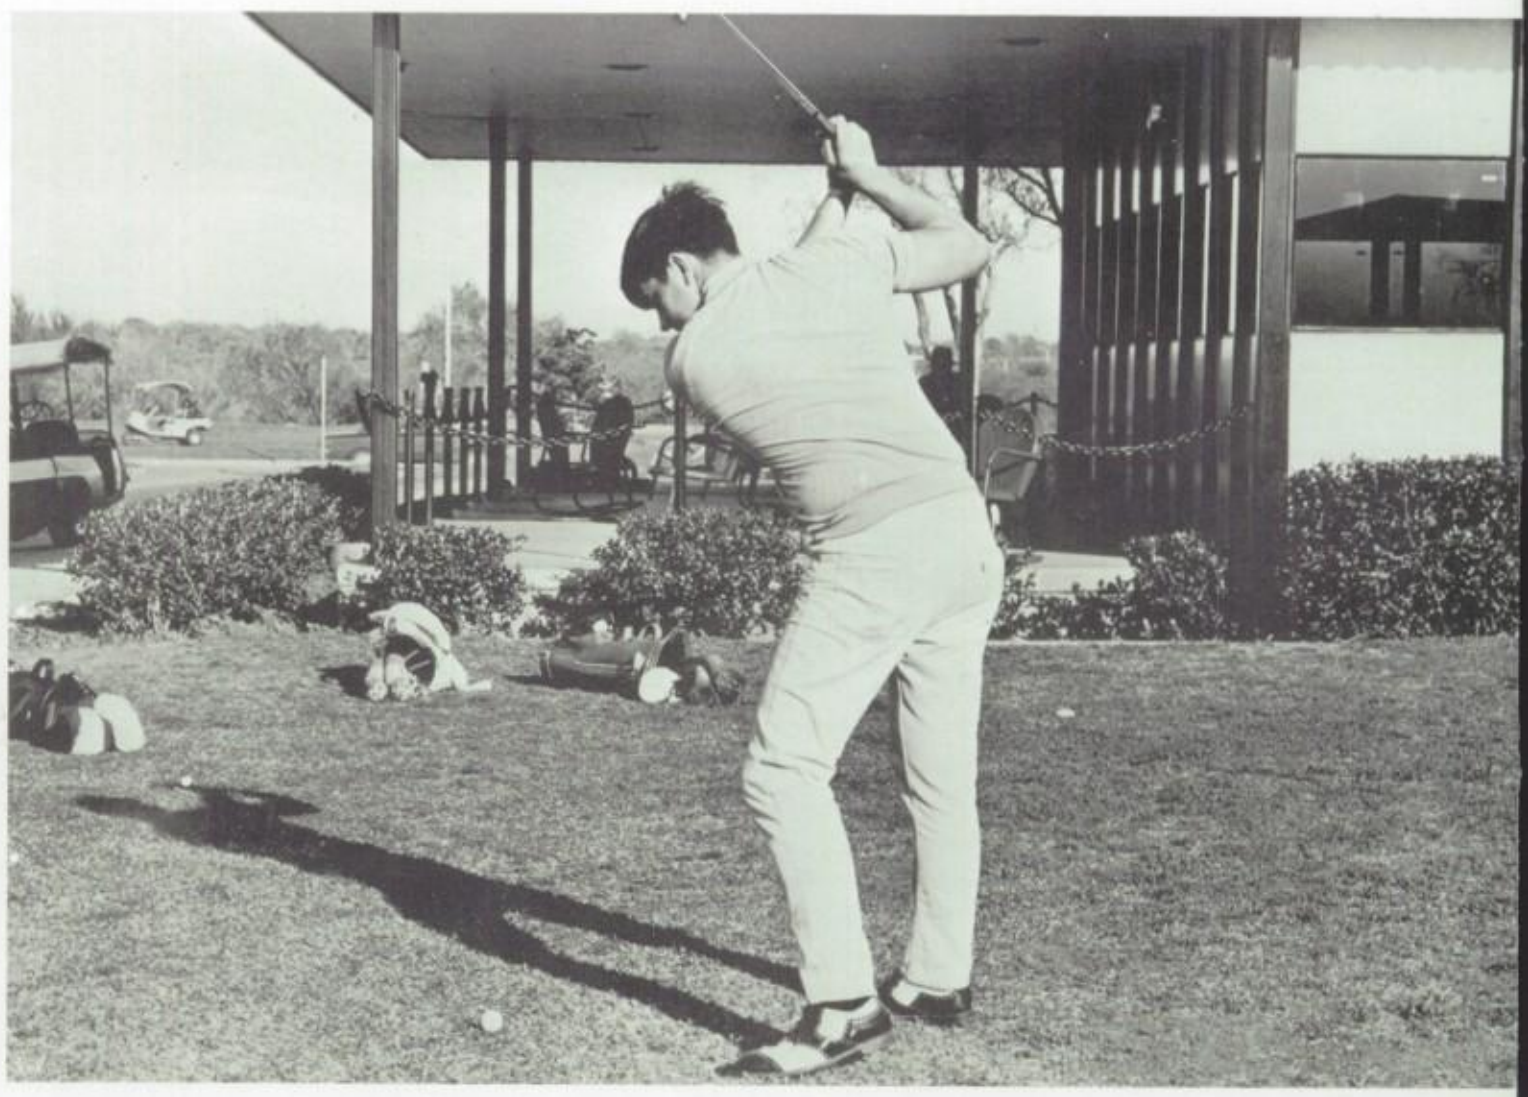
ADVANCES TO REGIONAL, EYES STATE

SOUTHPAW Earl Remmel gives it all he's got.

"DON'T FENCE ME OUT," could very well be what the reserves are thinking while they watch their greenmen face Northeast High.

ANOTHER blue-darter for the Irish. This time Jack Probeck gives it a ride.



"SHADES OF Arnold Palmer"! John Atwood prepares to hit the ball—or the turf—at the Lincoln golf course.

PROS IN THE MAKING TEST THEIR LUCK

UNDER THE SCRUTINY of Midwest City and Classen opponents, Chris Krisch taps in twelve-footer.

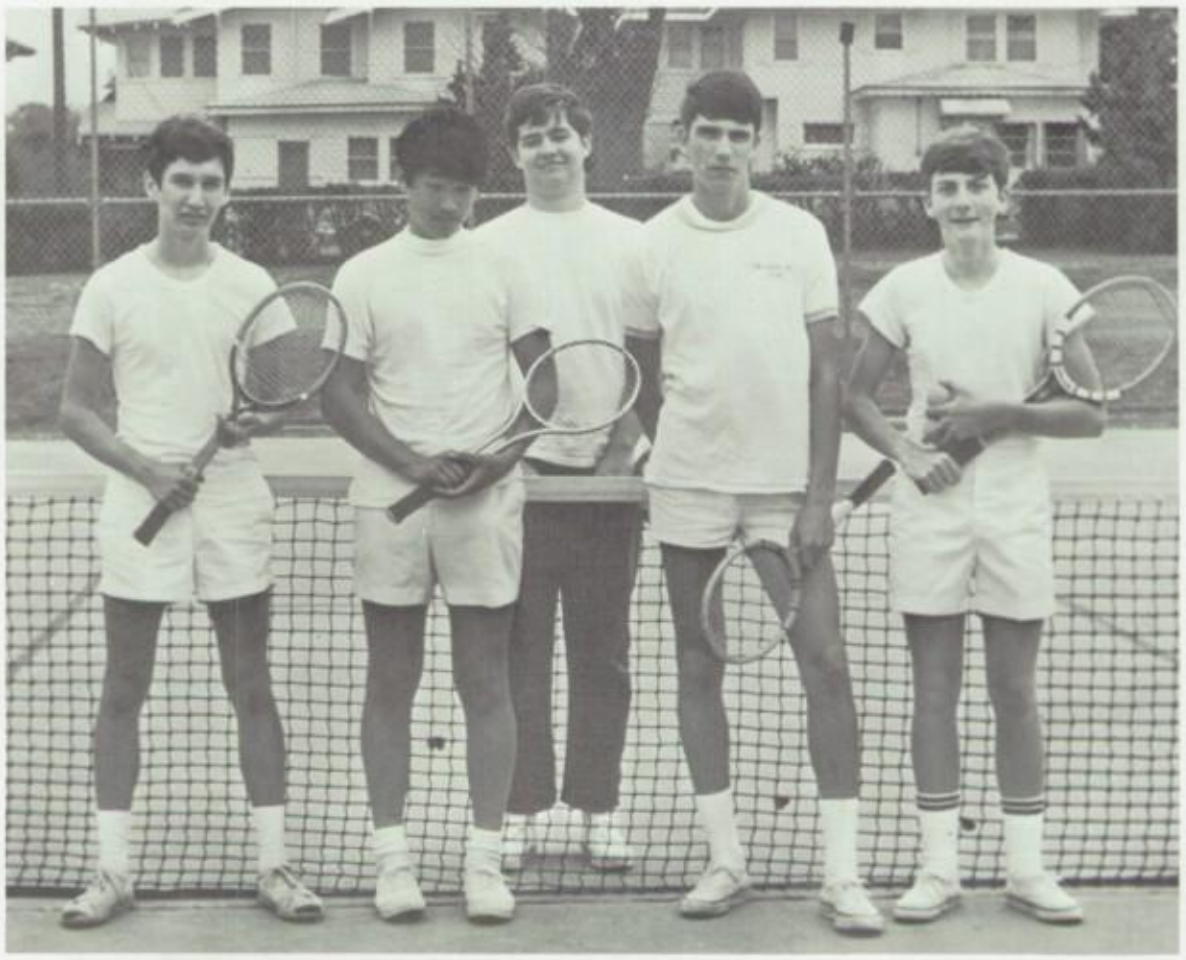
"REPLACE YOUR DIVOTS" thinks Mike Davis as the turf travels farther than the ball.

Through the years tennis, golf, and bowling have attracted a limited number of MHS sportsmen.

This year the tennis team listed six members, the golf team, eight. We haven't any record of the bowling situation so far; that group is probably inactive this season. With the advent of mod scheduling attention necessarily shifted to more important aspects of school life.

However, the golf team distinguished itself by placing second in the Capital Conference, and second in the regional playoffs, bringing them into the state finals.

In competition with local public schools the tennis team tallied an average record. With consistent play by underclassmen, this team gives much promise for the future.



McGUINNESS TENNIS players, David Sargent, Peter Mui, Coach Chris Walker, David Giasson, and Gerry Green.

SENIORS give the royal touch to the football homecoming ceremonies.

Taking advantage of free time afforded by the modular scheduling program, the Seniors and the Student Council inaugurated the student store, and sponsored a Christmas tree and food shower for needy families. In the "Men and Issues" Social Studies class they created an arrangement modeled on the United Nations. Fifty-one percent of the seniors maintained an above 3.00 average. They produced one National Merit Scholarship finalist. A scholastic tie resulted in two valedictorians. Ninety-five percent of the class are looking forward to college.

BASKETBALL Homecoming queen and court were selected from the Juniors.

With one hundred sixty-two members, the Junior class was the largest this year. Socially they concentrated on activities designed to provide funds for the Junior-Senior prom. They chose "The Time of the Season" as prom theme. Bake sales and mixers were prominent in their money raising projects. They created a precedent by inaugurating a MHS "Grub Day." Topped only by the Seniors, they placed fifty-five on the semester honor roll.

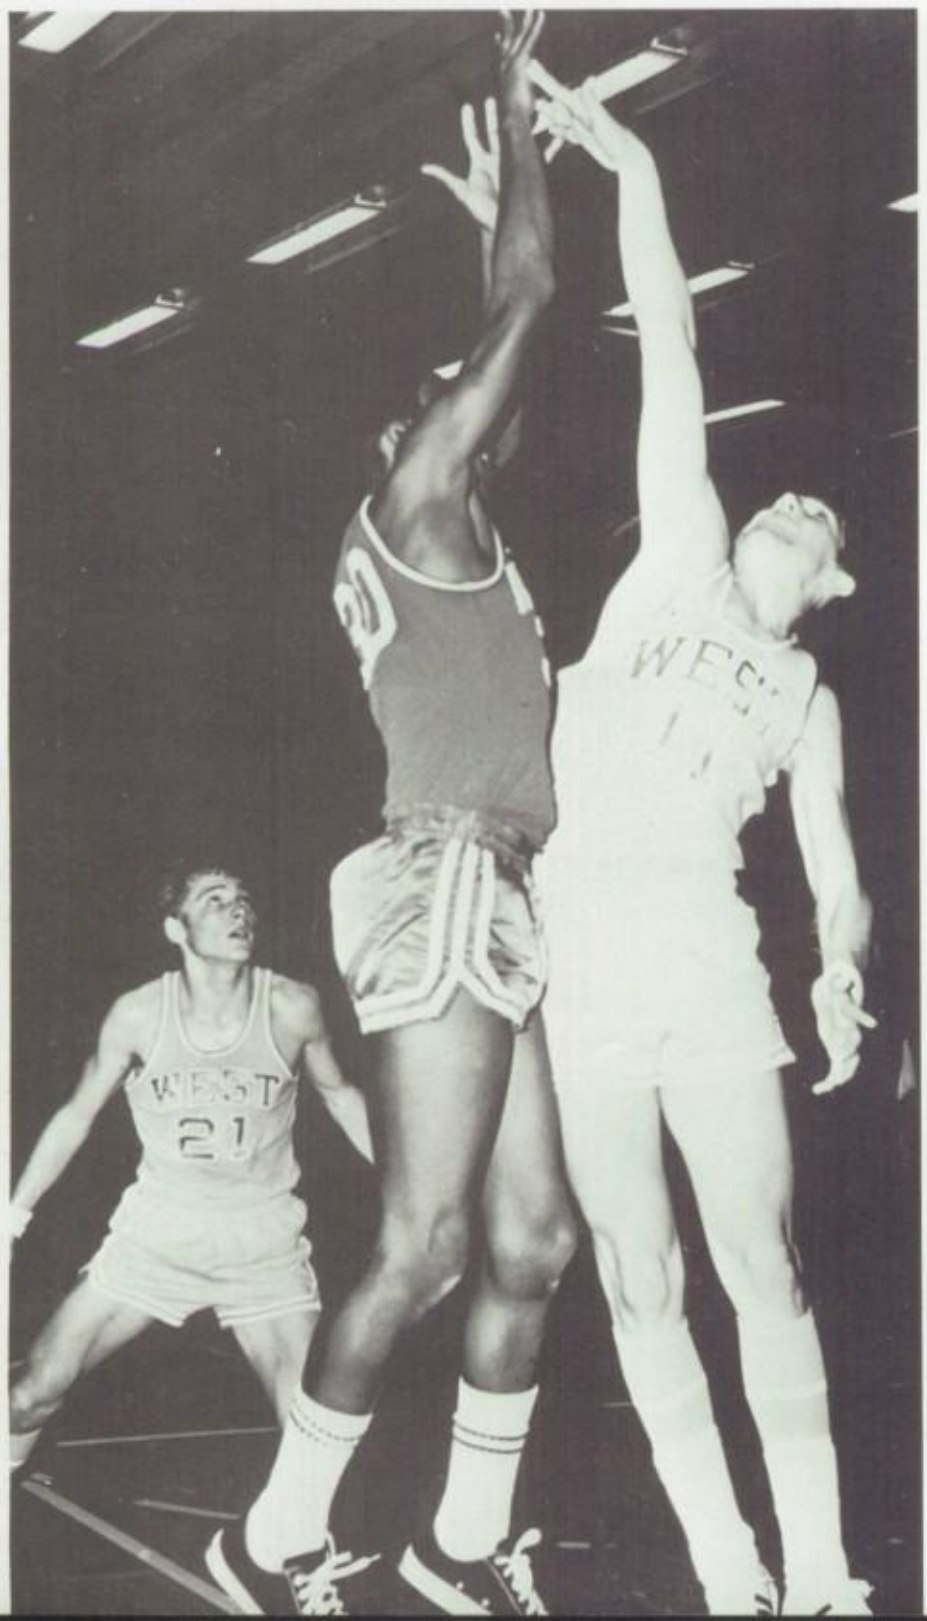
SOPHOMORE ERIC JOHNSON adds two to the winning score against Putnam City West.



Beginning with the sponsorship of the Freshman class picnic at Bethany Park, the Sophomores plunged into activities that kept them busy most of the year. As money projects they inaugurated car washes, bake sales, and a MHS pickle sale. The Sophomores sponsored a class mixer, in connection with the El Reno basketball game. They had twenty-one members on the varsity football team, and five on the varsity basketball group. They placed thirty-four members on the semester honor roll, and rated first in their division on the Olympic scholastic bowl.

Numerically the smallest class in school, the Freshmen, nevertheless proved themselves hardy and self-sufficient. In the canned food drive for the poor, they topped the other classes, by a large margin. In junior high sports and the pep club they distinguished themselves. The hardships of an unfamiliar academic regime took their toll; but among the survivors, thirty-eight made the semester honor roll.

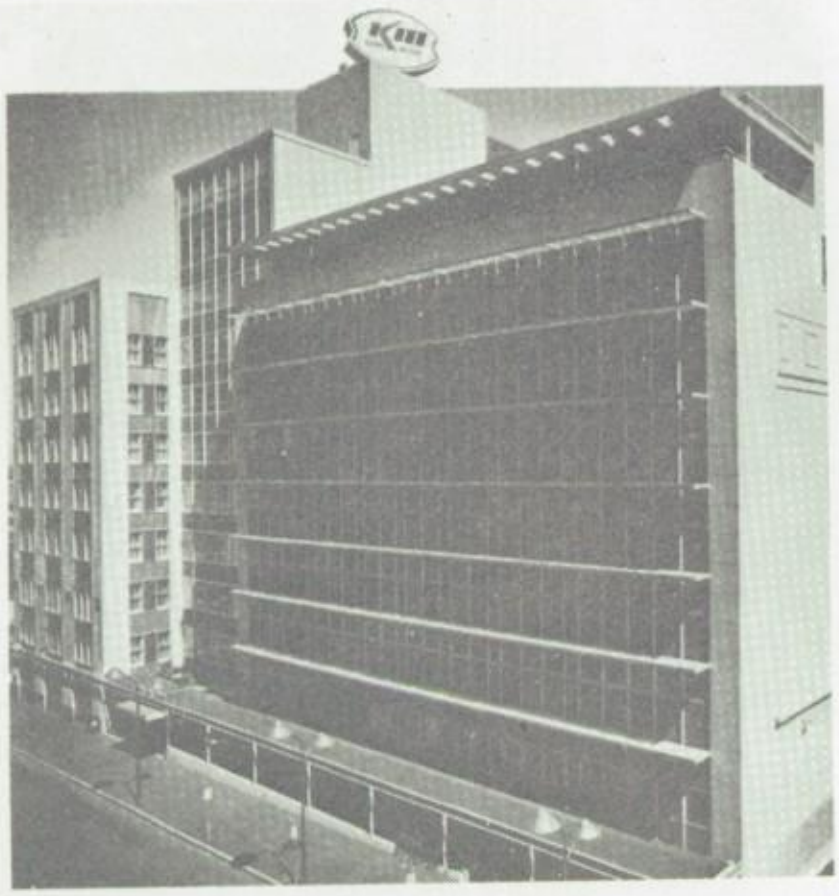
Judy Johnson in a study daze.



a company of people

Working, creating, building, producing to make a stronger America. Kerr-McGee is a growing company of people finding and developing oil and gas and other natural resources.

Our roots are deep in the soil of Oklahoma. We're proud of our heritage . . . we're proud to be a company of people who are part of the progress of the land.

"CARNIVAL"

ROUSTABOUTS, Jerry Kelley, Paul Sprehe, Pat McAboy, and Marcellus Jones, put on their own show, while Marco the Magnificent, (John Gavula) sings "With the sword and the rose and the cape."

THE OPENING Chorus, "Direct from Vienna," is sung by jugglers, Sherry Dumas, Mary Botchlet, sword swallower, Danny Snare, and the trained bear, Tom Gabel.

GLORIA GREEN playing Lili, the orphan girl from Mira, trying to find a job in the circus, sings, for Jacquot, her nostalgic memories of Mira: "What I liked best about Mira, everybody knew my name."

STAGED BY DRAMA, CHORUS GROUPS

Choral director James Capps and Drama coach Mrs. Mary Ed. Porter combined Drama and Chorus groups to present CARNIVAL, with a "cast of 100's," on May 9-10.

CARNIVAL featured Marco the Magnificent, Paul and Jacquot's puppets, harem girls, clowns, vendors, jugglers, and other attractions. The leading role "Lili" was played on alternate nights by Gloria Green and Vicki Loveless.

All costumes, props, scenery, programs, art designs, as as well as the choreography, were designed and prepared by members of the cast.

Proceeds of this performance went to the Peace Corps to build a "Partner School" in Bolivia, S. A.

ROSALIE (Carolyn Munoz) and Carnival owner Schlegel (Benton Jones) discuss their individual problems.

THANX FOR VISITING OUR MOD "MOD" WORLD

WE AWOKE one morning and found ourselves famous; and we haven't recovered from the shock yet.

THIS IS next year's Chi Rhoan complaint department. All gripes graciously rejected.

WHO SAID we don't have modern winters in Oklahoma!

MOD GENTLEMEN prefer brunettes ... and blondes.
